OUR GOSPEL MEETING

Our annual Gospel Meeting at Gloster Street is quickly approaching (November 1-4). We are looking forward to having Rusty Hills with us this year. Although Rusty is currently preaching in Huntsville, Alabama, at the Chase Park church of Christ, he is originally from Corinth, Mississippi. We are thankful he is able to come “home” for the week.

To help make our meeting successful, we need each member to do three things. First, let’s make an effort to be present for each service. The Gospel Meeting is being conducted for the benefit of the congregation. Please take advantage of this opportunity. Second, let’s make an effort to invite our friends and family members to join us. Studies show that individuals are most likely to visit if given a personal invitation. Invite! Invite! Invite! Third, let’s make an effort to pray each day until the meeting for the success of the effort. Pray that visitors will attend. Pray that the messages presented will be delivered in a way that will touch the hearts of those who hear. Pray for our speaker to have the strength necessary for the task.

In conjunction with the meeting, we will host fellowship meals Sunday at lunch and Monday-Wednesday evenings at 6:00 p.m. More information about these meals will be provided very soon.

WELCOMING VISITORS

We are blessed to have a large number of new faces at almost every service. Consequently, we must go out of our way to make visitors feel welcome. Here are just a few things you can do: Smile. Speak. Move over and invite guests to sit with you. You can also help our visitors find age-appropriate Bible classes. This is just one of the many ways we can all make a difference.

May God Bless You All!
