

The Reward of Faith

Hebrews 10:32-39 (October 11, 2026)

1. With what transitional word does verse 32 begin, and what does this indicate? What exhortation does the preacher give in this verse?
2. In verses 32-34, what commendable actions were performed by the recipients of this message, and to what motive did the writer attribute these actions?
3. According to verses 35-36, despite their past willingness to suffer for Christ and despite all they knew, what danger did the Hebrews still need to guard against?
4. In verses 34-36, what is the meaning of the “better and lasting possession,” the “great reward,” and the “promise” which belongs to those who endure in confident faith until the end? Support your answer with Scripture.
5. List 3 or 4 reasons that you long for heaven.
6. From 10:37-39, list 2 or 3 examples from Scripture of people who persevered in doing God’s will through many trials. How do those examples encourage you when facing trials in your own life?
