

No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known.

- John 1:18

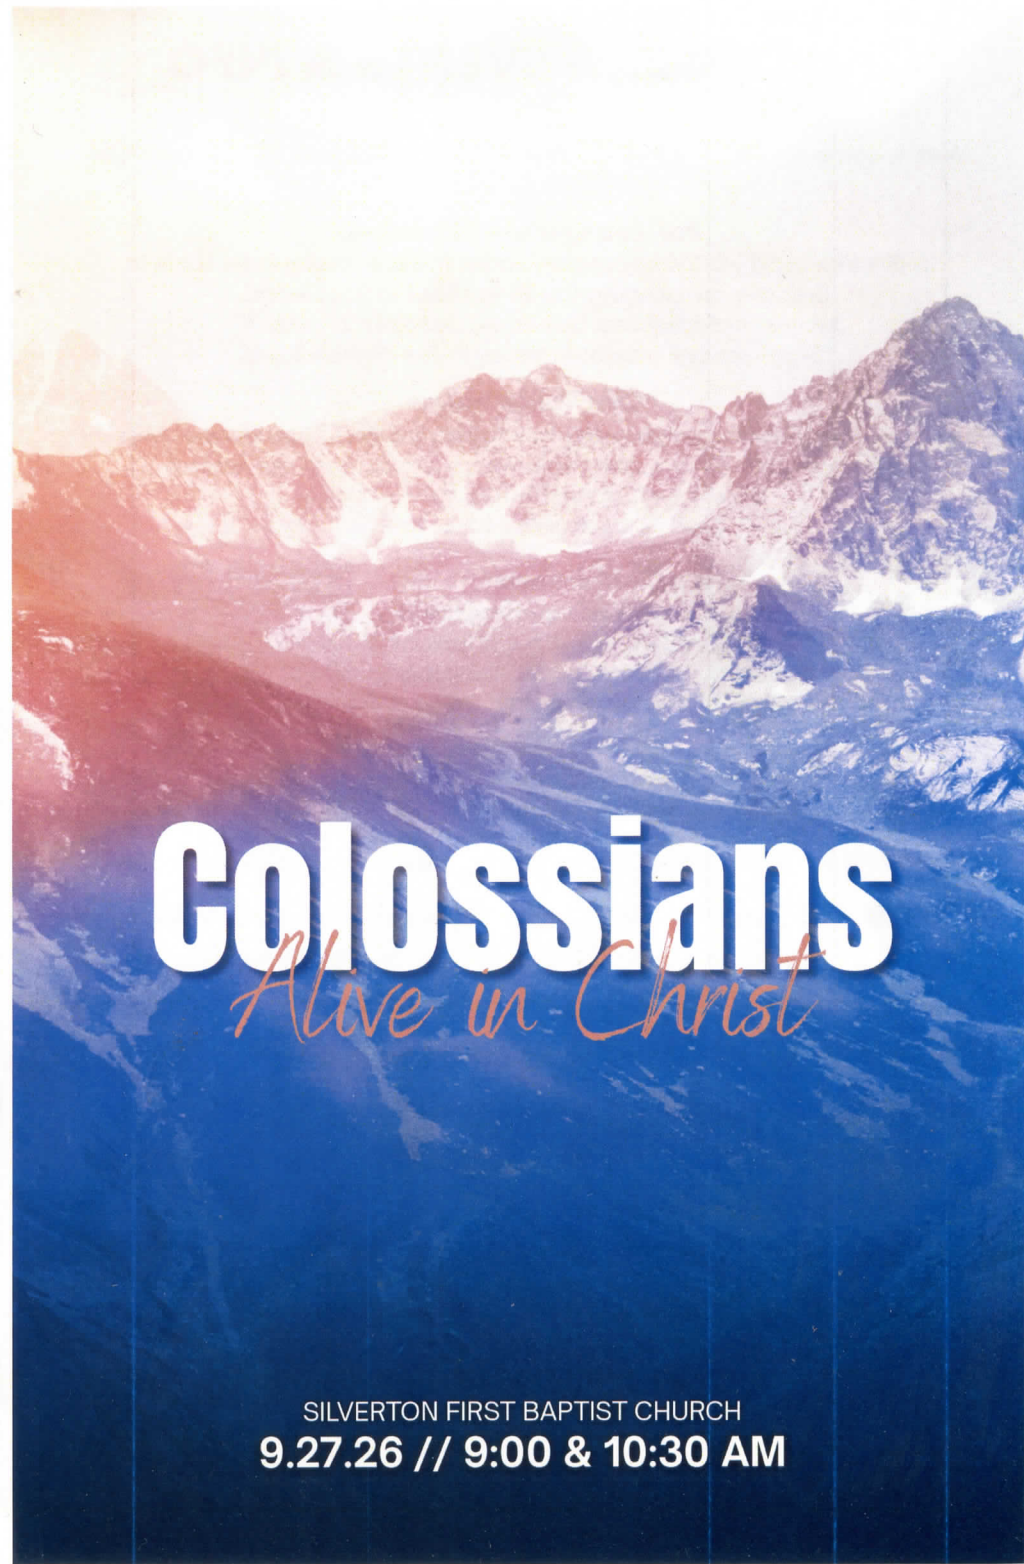

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

- Hebrews 1:1-3

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

- 2 Corinthians 5:18-21

The Supremacy of the Son – Colossians 1:15-23

Colossians: Alive in Christ – Pastor JD Winters – Sept. 27, 2026

Jesus is _____ and _____.

- As the _____ of God.

- In all of _____.

- In resurrection and _____.

What the sufficiency of Jesus means for his people:

- We WERE _____ and _____.

- We ARE _____.

- We WILL remain _____.

Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. What does Paul tell us about Jesus in this passage that makes him worthy of our worship?
2. What is so significant about Jesus being the "image of the invisible God"?
3. What is the significance of Jesus's being Lord over not only the first creation but the new creation as well?
4. What does it mean for Jesus to reconcile all things to himself through the blood of his cross?
5. How does Jesus's reconciling work on the cross change our identity?
