A message from Pastor Becca:

Good Morning! Good Afternoon! And Good Evening! The weather is beginning to cool off and soon the leaves will change colors. Fall is a time of beauty and business. Parents are busy getting kids to and from events; farmers are busy harvesting the last of their produce; the church is busy hosting dinners, packing shoeboxes, and much more. Amongst all the business of life, take a moment this week to step outside, breath in the crisp October air, and listen to the sounds of nature. As you breathe in let the peace of God fill you and as you breathe out let go of your stress and anxiety. We are entering a new season of weather, but maybe you are entering a new season of life. Ecclesiastes, chapter 3, verse 1 says, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." Whether its plants or kids or grief or relationships or business or even the life of the church, everything has a time and a season. Change is all around us. There is joy and peace in embracing change. Summer is more exciting after the winter storms have cleared, the changing colors of the leaves are beautiful after seeing green all summer, and the cold of the winter gives us time to rest. Whatever season you find yourself in God is there with you.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8:

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
