From Pastor Denise

Many thanks to Trinity and the Trinity Endowment Fund for providing for a sabbatical for me over the summer. This was truly a gift of time to renew, learn and rest. Thank you to Pastor Jonathan Breimeier for providing pastoral care, worship leadership and all the ways he went above and beyond to care to you all while I was on sabbatical. And thank you to Trinity's leadership who covered a lot of the little things that happen day to day. Many thanks to Anna-Lisa Mbise for filling in in the office during the summer.

So what does one do on a sabbatical?

Professionally, I was able to do a lot for which the daily schedule of ministry doesn't allow.

In June I was blessed to visit the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land with 12 other pastors and lay leaders from our synod on a pilgrimage of solidarity and accompaniment. It was an eye-opening and heart wrenching experience. We spent our time in Bethlehem, East Jerusalem, Hebron and other areas of the West Bank. We did not see bombing or overt violence. But we did see a 30-foot-high concrete separation wall between the West Bank and Israel. We heard the stories of how settlements, water, movement and time have been weaponized by the Israeli military and government to squeeze Palestinians off their land. We heard from the ELCJHL bishop, pastors, and lay leaders about what ministry is like in such an oppressive context. We experienced the warm and welcoming hospitality of the Palestinian people who struggle to survive in this context. We heard from advocacy groups and activists, both Palestinian and Israeli, who are working for peaceful solutions.

If you would like to hear more about this trip, I will be leading a 5-week study in November and December on the book “The First Advent in Palestine” and incorporating things I learned on this trip into the study. My daughter, Aliliywa, was also on the trip and will be joining me, as her schedule allows, for the 5-week study to present some of her own reflections from our trip. You can find details of this 5-week study in this Tidings.

I was also able to visit a number of congregations in our synod and learn about what other congregations are doing in relation to children’s and intergenerational worship and Reconciling in Christ teams. I visited Cross in Burlington, Holy Cross in Menomonee Falls, St. Paul’s in Milwaukee, House of Prayer in Franklin, Lutheran Church of the Great Spirit in Milwaukee and Christmas Lutheran in Bethlehem, Palestine.

Along with my congregational visits, I attended the Conference on Worship, Theology and Art at St. Olaf College in July. I heard lots of wonderful things congregations are doing around the country for intergenerational worship, children’s ministries, music and liturgical resources, and so much more. I will be presenting some of these learnings to the council, the Worship and Music team and the Youth and Education teams.

I also did a whole lot of reading. A couple people have asked what I read, so here is a list of what I read while on sabbatical:

Finished “The Lord of the Rings” by J.R.R. Tolkien which I had started in January.

“Rest is Resistance: A Manifesto” by Tricia Hersey

“Lady Clementine” by Marie Benedict

“The First Advent in Palestine: Reversals, Resistance, and the Ongoing Complexity of Hope” by Kelley Nikondeha

“Tinkers” by Paul Harding

“Beyond a Binary God: A Theology for Trans* Allies” by Tara K. Soughers

“The Correspondent” by Virginia Evans

“The Book of Longings” by Sue Monk Kidd

“Parable of the Sower” by Octavia Butler

“The Nightingale” by Kristin Hannah

“The Starless Sea” by Erin Morgenstern

“Ashes to Ashes” by Thomas Maltman

And started “Africa is not a Country: Notes on a Bright Continent” by Dipo Faloyin

Personally I was able to spend a lot of much needed time with my children and my brother. Our immediate family spent a few days in the Denver area visiting Exaudh’s two brothers, Domino and Lamech, and their families. We took in the Denver Art Museum and had a big family gathering. I was able to take in some plays at the American Players Theatre, The Fireside and the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre. I sorted through piles of pictures that my parents left behind. Thanks to a generous colleague, Exaudh and I spent some time up north near Townsend at a cabin on a lake. It was a time of rest and renewal both personally and professionally.

I also had time to reflect and set some goals for ministry here at Trinity in the next few years – 1) I'd like to create a visitation team to help visit all our homebound members. I didn't realize just how many we had until I was compiling a list for Pastor Jon. So if anyone enjoys visiting, let me know. We will have a home communion training and get you connected with a couple people to visit. This will not take the place of my visits, it will just add some more connection for people and enable a monthly communion visit. 2) We have a 100th anniversary coming up in 2028. I'd like to build a team to work on planning some ways we can celebrate Trinity's 100 years of ministry throughout 2028. 3) Build up our ministry teams and engage more of the whole congregation in the ministry we do.

That's my sabbatical in a nutshell. I'm happy to talk more with anyone who wants to listen. I would also love to hear how the summer was for you. Thank you again.

God's Peace be with you all,

From Our President

Dear Trinity Lutheran Church Family,

October brings cooler days, changing colors, and a reminder of the many blessings God continues to place in our lives. As we move into the fall season, I am grateful for the faith, fellowship, and generosity that make Trinity such a welcoming church home.

I want to thank everyone who gives their time and talents to our ministries, worship, fellowship, and service to others. A special thank you to all who have been helping with cleaning and caring for our church, as well as those who participated in God's Work. Our Hands. in September. Your willingness to serve is greatly appreciated. Each contribution, whether large or small, helps strengthen our congregation and allows us to share God's love within our church and throughout our community.

As we look ahead to the coming weeks, I encourage everyone to stay connected, participate when you can, and continue welcoming both familiar faces and new ones into the life of Trinity.

May this season remind us to give thanks for God's many blessings and to continue walking together in faith.

Blessings,
Jason Woodbury
Congregation President

Please Welcome Our New Office Manager

Hello Trinity Lutheran Church! My Name is Jasmine Zabrowski, and I'm delighted to be your new office and communications manager. I currently live in Wauwatosa with my husband Joe, my mother-in-law, and my 2 kids, Evey (7) and Asher (4 and 1/2). In my free time, I love to paint and embroider - not well, but just for fun. I look forward to meeting you all and learning about you as I learn this new role.

NEW OFFICE HOURS

With our new office manager, Jasmine Zabrowski, starting the week of September 20th, office hours will be changing indefinitely to Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Playground Welcome

Our playground is ready for you! Families are invited to use this space at the front of the pews to sit together with access to tools curated for people of all ages and abilities. This space is especially designed to give room for safe movement, flexible seating, and the items that come along with family care (diaper bags, car seats, etc). It is a space for families to worship together, for children to sit in ways that are comfortable for their bodies, to engage in developmentally appropriate worship activities, and a place where they are able to see what is happening in church so they can participate. Using the playground tools, children can sing, reflect, and participate while learning the rhythms of worship and growing in faith as full members of this congregation.

So far, children have been excited to see for the first time what happens during offering and communion. They have asked questions about mission moments, paraments, and Pastor Denise's hand gestures that they never could see before.

This space will develop over the next few months to more fully meet our needs and adapt to the church seasons, so be sure to check in regularly and welcome the children using it.

Thank you to our generous donors and volunteers for your generous support of Trinity's families.

Outreach for Hope

Trinity had a great crew of walkers at the Outreach for Hope: Ride, Run, Walk event on September 26. Thank you to the whole team who participated!

Each year, Outreach for Hope provides grant support to ministries that walk with low-income communities. In previous years, they have helped to expand food and clothing distribution at 5 local ministries, provided free summer camps for children, assisted with legal immigration issues, and supported vocational training for those in need.

God's Work, Our Hands

Restaurant Meetup

There was a request we try Mulligans Irish Pub & Grill located at 8933 S. 27th Street, Franklin WI. We will meet on Saturday, October 17 at 1:00 p.m. Look for the sign up sheet in Narthex. They will accommodate separate checks. I am always looking for recommendations of places to try.

If a ride is needed call Cindy Felicki (414) 241-4742.

Trinity's Fall Craft and Vendor Fair

Submitted by Patty Rosek-Johnson

Save the date for Trinity's Craft and Vendor Fair! On Saturday, October 24 from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. new and returning crafters and vendors from around the area will be selling their wares in the classrooms and fellowship hall at Trinity. This is a great opportunity to engage with our neighbors and welcome them through our doors. Looking for a way to help? There are several.

Bake sale –Shoppers love our bake sale! Items especially in-demand are whole pies, quick breads/muffins, bars, and cookies. Bust out your favorite recipe and help make this year's bake sale another success!

Spread the Word –Our vendors need shoppers! Tell your coffee clutch, bingo buddies, pickleball partners and quilting queens about our great event, and share the Facebook updates from Trinity's page from now until the fair.

Volunteers - Do you have an hour of time to give? There are slots for the welcome table (a seated position), bake sale, and food sale, as well as "floaters" to fill in where needed. Not available on October 24? Additional help is needed to cut bars and price bake sale items during the day on Friday, October 23.

If want to be part of this awesome community event, please signup online

Bake sale: <https://tinyurl.com/43mc87r5>

Volunteer: <https://tinyurl.com/3k6wpbbh> or in the Narthex in the coming weeks.

Trinity has become known for our offering of candle lighting in memory of loved ones, for our treats and hot chocolate. People come and stay awhile and enjoy the feeling of community. It is a wonderful thing to be able to offer those who may feel left out in other situations. Join us as we hand out treats, offer hot chocolate and apple cider, offer candle lighting and take prayer requests. Dress up in your favorite Halloween costume and join the fun! We will need donations of small wrapped candy, hot chocolate (not packets), hot apple cider, hot cups, napkins and spoons. You can drop them off at the church office.

Advent Study “The First Advent in Palestine” by Kelley Nikondeha

Come learn about the history of Palestine during the time of Jesus and hear about Pastor Denise Mbise and Aliliywa Mbise’s experiences in Palestine this past June. We will also use some videos from SUMUD to learn about current events.

Pastor Denise will lead this 5-week study using the book “The First Advent in Palestine” by Kelley Nikondeha which explores the birth narratives of Jesus in Luke and Matthew. She talks about these narratives in relation to what was going on historically at the time and what is currently happening in Palestine.

Each week we will explore a couple chapters in the book, hear from Pastor Denise and Aliliywa about their experiences in Bethlehem and East Jerusalem, and make use of the SUMUD videos on some history of Palestine.

This study is being offered at two different times each week with the same content.

Wednesdays from 6:30-8 p.m. beginning November 18

Sundays from 12 noon – 1:30 p.m. beginning November 22

Nov. 18 and Nov. 22 – Introduction and chapters 1 and 2 (The Maccabees, Zechariah and Luke 1:5-25)

Youth and Family News

Submitted by Alyssa Olson

Welcome Back!

We had a wonderful start to our new school year! Classes kicked off September 13, with two classes full of excitement followed by lively worship. This year, our younger class is playing through favorite ABC Bible and our older class is exploring stories from the lectionary, focusing on major Genesis and Exodus narratives this fall.

Thank you for supporting our GIANT cinnamon roll sale—the next one will be December 13 after our Christmas Program worship. We loved the reception in our beautiful courtyard, especially decorating the windows, and were proud to help with God's Work Our Hands service projects.

On September 14, our confirmation class kicked off with an adult vs kids gameshow all about Lutheran worship. The adults won, but the students will be prepared to challenge again in the spring. We're very excited to be using a brand new curriculum from Augsburg that builds on what we already do with experiential learning to equip our students to say "Yes!" to God.

Thank you to all the grown ups who bring kids to church and those who volunteer to make these ministries possible.

Be sure to grab a new Trinity Faith and Fun brochure from the narthex to keep track of our fall and winter happenings.

Bible Presentations

On Reformation Sunday, October 25, Trinity families will fulfill baptismal promises by placing Bibles in the hands of their children. Bibles are presented to three year olds, third graders, sixth graders, and all new students. We look forward to the congregation supporting these children in their faith journeys on this day and for years to come!

TLCSM Fans

It's time for fall sports, music, theater, and more! Let's practice being community by sharing and supporting each other in all we do.

Simply check out the activity list at <https://linktr.ee/tlcsmfans>, choose something that sounds fun, and show up!

If you have an event or activity that you would like Trinity members to attend, send Alyssa (youthtlcsm@gmail.com) a note with the details and/or a link so we can add your event to our list.

Youth Gathering

Save the dates for the 2027 ELCA National Youth and Young Adult Gatherings!
June 28-July 2, 2027. Registration is due October 18.

The Youth Gathering is a unique faith formation experience. Every three years, thousands of ELCA teens from across the country converge on one city for a week of worship, service, and fellowship unlike any other. This is one of the most impactful opportunities for a young person's faith.

Teens must be in 8th-12th grade in fall 2026 to attend the Youth Gathering.
For those 18-35, the national Young Adult Gathering will happen at the same time. There are also pre-events for disabled youth and youth of color to gather in the community before the large event.

Learn more at <https://www.elca.org/gathering-2027/about-what-is-the-gathering>.

We'll need adults to help lead, plan, and fundraise. In the coming weeks, please prayerfully consider if you might be feeling called to be part of this once in a lifetime faith experience. You do not need to be a caregiver of youth to volunteer! If you're interested in building your faith and supporting our youth, let Alyssa know how you'd like to help.

We'll meet October 11 after worship to finalize plans and prepare registration. Registration is due October 18. If you or your family is interested in attending, please talk to Alyssa in person or email youthtlcsm@gmail.com for more information.

Financial Update for August

Submitted by David Hahn

Financial Update for July: This last month of the summer was another negative month which did create a year-to-date deficit for the first time in four months.

- Net income -$3,257; Year-to-date -$2,065
- We did have 5 weekends in August which helped keep our deficit down
- We did have to borrow $10,000 from our reserves in order to keep our checking account balance positive
- Compared to last year at this time, we are ahead in income by $11,000, and expenses were the same

We are always blessed to have this congregation recognize what it takes to "keep the lights on" year-round. We are projected to have a balanced budget at year end. Please keep this in mind for the next four months as you plan your gifting.

Project Uplift: Balance of $22,157: Income $263, Expense $2,759 roof repair and boiler relief valve

Endowment Fund Grants: $500 for Outreach for Hope , $230 for music
