Dear Friends in Christ,

“But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.
Matthew 6:33

I would like to invite you on a (very) brief tour of one of the most important religious sites in all of Missouri. I do this for the sake of looking at how the rituals in which we wittingly (and, perhaps even more importantly, unwittingly) engage have a profoundly formative effect on all of us. It is to a place that might be very familiar to you, but I am trying to make it appear strange, so that you might be able to see it anew with a different perspective. I want to show you something that has been in front of you for a long time – years, probably – that perhaps you never noticed.

As you approach the site, you can tell its popularity by the sheer number of cars in the parking lot. It's throbbing with pilgrims who make their trips here frequently, always joyfully anticipating the opportunity to devote themselves to the rituals that take place within. Once you're out of your car and near the entryway, you stop to marvel at the magnificence of its grandeur, with the open, beckoning spaces within. This may be the only such building you have ever frequented or maybe you have been to others in the past. Either way, it has a sense of familiarity about it, both outside in, so that you feel at home almost right away, even if it's your first visit. There are banners and flags, familiar texts and familiar symbols on the outside of the building to remind you about why you are there.

Once you have entered, you proceed through a large and welcoming area intended for receiving, orienting, and channeling all who visit. It provides an opportunity for the devotees to internally prepare themselves for what will follow. The invitation is there for all to leave behind the driven, goal-oriented ways of the 'outside' world. Instead, it engenders a spirit of curiosity and discovery. A quick glance at the space will confirm that this area follows a special calendar. Colors, symbols, and decorations leave no doubt as to what time of year you are there.

Making your way into the primary worship space, you will be struck by the rich imagery, even statuary, modeling the pulse of this place for all to see. This is a religious proclamation that does not deal in abstracted ideals or rules or doctrines, but rather offers to the imagination a real and fleshy image of the truly religious life. Greeters and other clerics are there to assist and guide you in your devotion. Once prepared, you proceed to the altar for the most important ritual before you depart again and return to the world. Released with a benediction, you retreat from this ritual and site to contemplate your return trip to this, or another similar chapel. After all, who can resist the tangible realities and promise contained therein of a good life offered so abundantly?

Now certainly, the described visit and accompanying ritual is intentionally vague. It describes a religious experience, but do you know which? Indeed, does it even have to be one? Could it describe a visit to one of the large Lutheran churches in the St. Louis area? Maybe the Chapel of St. Timothy and St. Titus at Concordia Seminary? Or how about a visit to a non-Lutheran church, like the cathedral basilica in St. Louis. Or it could describe a visit to Trinity on a Sunday morning? Perhaps, though, the religious experience could describe something that you or I would never, ever assume to be a religious event at all – what if I told you that this event was a visit to Columbia Mall, or to the Galleria in St. Louis, or to Walmart, or any other commercial shopping establishment?

I don't mean to belittle the buildings and rituals of the Christian Church which provide both the location and content to feed us God's Word and Sacraments for our forgiveness, life, and salvation; but I do want you to pause and consider how ritualized a mundane task such as shopping has become. Ponder the formation that it has imposed upon all of us as we, for the most part unquestioningly, engage in all of those rituals from the welcoming greeter, to admiring the mannequins, to the obligatory exchange of currency for goods and the universal, 'have a nice day,' benediction that indicates our ritual is complete.

There isn't space in a newsletter to expound much more on all of the implications of the above, but please make an effort to pay attention to all of the rituals you find in your daily life. Consider how much they have contributed to your worldview, to what you fear, love, and trust in above all other things. If you have children, particularly young children, pay even closer attention.

The culture around us wants to define religious activity and expression strictly as that which pertains to the worship of the Christian Church (or other worshipping community). The world's goal in this effort is to enact a strict division between religious aspects of public life, and ideally, the complete removal of religion from public life. The irony is that, if you consider the ritualistic nature of practically every aspect of life, from the trip to Starbucks to watching a college football game, public life is religiously saturated. The world wants you to believe that religious instruction is limited to what you elect to participate in on Sunday morning at church or at other educational opportunities at church, like our Catechism and Confirmation Instruction program, but nothing could be further from the truth. Every waking hour of every day you and your children are receiving religious instruction. The only question is this – toward what end is the religious instruction leading you, your friends, your coworkers, and your family? Is it toward everlasting life with Jesus Christ, the risen Savior, or is toward something else?

One of the areas of great focus for me pastorally at Trinity these past 16 years has been the religious instruction of young people. I know all of you care greatly about the youth of our congregation and community. As we look to the future, I encourage you to hold fast to the sound words and teachings of Christianity in your homes and families. Make the religious instruction you receive from your church the most important religious instruction for you and your family. The Lord has promised that the gates of hell will not prevail over his church, he is faithful, and he will do it.

In Christ,
Pastor Powell

October Hymn of the Month: The Strong Word (LSB 578)

“Thy Strong Word” is an occasional hymn, written for the commencement at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis in 1955. Martin Franzmann (1907-1976) wrote the hymn, after being encouraged by seminary colleague Walter Buszin (1899-1973) to compose a hymn to the tune EBENEZER. Franzman chose to base the hymn on the seminary’s motto, “Light from above” (Matthew 4:16). The first recorded use of the hymn was in a seminary chapel service in October of 1954, where Buszin preached. That version was only four verses. Realizing the hymn was not long enough for a commencement processional, a fifth verse was added (“From the Cross Thy wisdom shining”). In 1959 the final doxological stanza was added. This hymn, so closely attached to the Seminary, was used at every commencement from 1955 until 1997, and at numerous opening services. It is perhaps one of the most popular hymns in Lutheran Service Book.

The ordering of verses has varied over time, but it appears that Franzmann gave approval to the current ordering of verses with the publishing of Worship Supplement (1969), although the first use of the current ordering appears to have been between 1959 and 1968.

“Light—the source of life, the enabler of vision, and a rich figure of speech found often in the Scriptures—serves as the primary image of the hymn. The word itself is used in all but one stanza, and in each refrain- like stanza ending.” Stanza one signs of light as a physical phenomenon, called into existence by the creating Word. Stanza two uses the language of “life-breathing breath” that connects to both the giving of life at creation and giving life to sinners dead in their sins. This is a return to the original language composed by Franzmann (where Lutheran Worship used “life-giving”). Stanza three uses the word light to speak of our brightness as a reflection of His holiness. Stanza four sings of light emanating from the cross. Stanza five, the only stanza not to use the word light (other than the refrain) focuses on breath as another source of life. In the final doxological stanza, Franzmann connects all the images of light together: “the Creator of the physical light that orders our lives; Christ the light of the world and bringer of salvation; and the faith-creating light of the Holy Spirit that is reflected in our sanctified lives.”

Summarized from Lutheran Service Book: Companion to the Hymns (Concordia Publishing House, 2019).

Hymn Text

- 1 Thy strong word did cleave the darkness;
At Thy speaking it was done.
For created light we thank Thee,
While Thine ordered seasons run.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia without end!
- 2 Lo, on those who dwelt in darkness,
Dark as night and deep as death,
Broke the light of Thy salvation,
Breathed Thine own life-breathing breath.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia without end!
- 3 Thy strong Word bespeaks us righteous;
Bright with Thine own holiness,
Glorious now, we press toward glory,
And our lives our hopes confess.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia without end!
- 4 From the cross Thy wisdom shining
Breaketh forth in conqu’ring might;
From the cross forever beameth
All Thy bright redeeming light.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise to Thee who light dost send!
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia without end!
- 5 Give us lips to sing Thy glory,
Tongues Thy mercy to proclaim,
Throats that shout the hope that fills us,
Mouths to speak Thy holy name.
Alleluia, alleluia!
May the light which Thou dost send
Fill our songs with alleluias,
Alleluias without end!
- △ 6 God the Father, light-creator,
To Thee laud and honor be.
To Thee, Light of Light begotten,
Praise be sung eternally.
Holy Spirit, light-revealer,
Glory, glory be to Thee.
Mortals, angels, now and ever
Praise the holy Trinity!

Trinity Lutheran Missions & Service Sharing Our Harvest Food Drive

Attention all hunters. As we approach beard season, we are asking all to prayerfully consider harvesting an extra deer this year so we can donate it to the Samaritan Center. Cole county does not have any participating butchers in the “Share the Harvest” program. The Samaritan Center gets on a list and never knows if, when or how much they will receive. If you are so willing, please have your animal ground and vacuum sealed for deliver to the Samaritan Center. We are looking into a Thrivent card to assist with cost if necessary. Additionally, the Salvation Army encourages precooked deer meat to serve to their residents. They currently have 17 residents but are expanding to accommodate 60, and they need to feed them daily. Precooked and vacuum sealed meats go a long way to helping with this endeavor. If you have any question, please don’t hesitate to reach out to Rik Combs, Cory Esselman, Kim Forney, or Rick Hardin for more details.

Help Keep Our Online Church Directory Accurate and Up to Date

Last year a church directory was created that was available both as a printed booklet and as an online directory. The goal is to keep the online directory current, accurate, and useful for everyone.

The online directory is accessed through an app called INSTANT CHURCH DIRECTORY and this app allows members to access the online directory anytime and keep their own information up to date.

Many members have already participated, but if you haven't, it's never too late to be included! Simply complete the Church Directory Information form and return the form to the church office.

Once your information has been added to the online directory, you will receive an email with instructions for creating your login. After your account is set up, you'll be able to upload your family photo.

Already Using Instant Church Directory?

If you already have an Instant Church Directory account, you can update your family photo or contact information at any time. It's easy!

1. Open the Instant Church Directory app or website.
2. If using the app, tap the Menu (the three lines in the upper-left corner); or if using the Instant Church Directory website click on Edit My Info in the upper right of the webpage.
3. From the dropdown menu on the app select Edit My Info.
4. Scroll to the section you want to update, and tap Edit or tap the Edit Profile icon.
5. Make your changes and tap Submit Edits.

That's all there is to it! By keeping your information current, you'll help maintain an accurate online directory and keep our church family connected.

Thank you for taking a few minutes to participate and for helping to keep our online church directory up to date.

If you have any questions or need instructions on downloading the Instant Church Directory app, please contact the church office or Janell Bernskoetter at sketerjl@gmail.com or \(573\) 690-6375.

SIMPLE HABITS FOR BUSY TIMES

How do you start your day? Do you roll out of bed at the last minute and race chaotically into the deluge of life?

A better way is to orient yourself spiritually to anchor your day in the Lord's enduring promises. It changes the tone for the whole day and makes you better prepared to be a growing disciple of Jesus who is making disciples of Jesus wherever you go.

The good news is that it doesn't take much time to get your bearings set each morning. In fact, we've been sharing a simple practice that takes two minutes or less and is fitting for any disciple of any age.

SEE & HEAR Dr. Todd Biermann share a simple Daily Morning Orientation video.

When you're REALLY SHORT on time, use this Daily Essential Orientation video.

WORDING for the Essential Orientation:

- Where did I come from? From God, who made me.
- Where am I going? To God, who redeemed me when Jesus died on the cross and rose in victory.
- What's my purpose in between? To receive Jesus' sacrificial, unconditional and incarnational love and hand it out to everyone every day.
