

Serving All for the Glory of God

I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

John 13:34-35, NRSV

September 27, 2026

Dear St. Peter's Family, beloved children of the Most-High God,

Jesus assures us, "in my Father's house there are many dwelling places" John 14-2, NRSV. These words remind us that God's abundance is spacious and generous. There is plenty good room in God's household for each of us.

This year's stewardship theme, Plenty Good Room, invites us to recognize the abundance God has already entrusted to us. Even in uncertain times, we are called to trust that there is enough: for our families, enough for our church, enough for our neighbours.

One way we live into this truth is by sharing our resources – our money, our time, and our talents – for the mission and ministry of St. Peter's congregation. These gifts support worship that lifts our hearts. Teaching that shapes our disciplines, fellowship that strengthens our bonds, and outreach that embodies Christ's love.

Over the next several weeks, you will hear from the Stewards of our parish about Plenty Good Room and how your generosity makes a difference. Today I simply ask you to begin praying with this theme, reflecting on the resources that God has placed in your care, and considering how you might share them joyfully in the year ahead.

Together, let us rejoice that there is always plenty good room in God's house, and plenty good work for us to do.

In Christ is all our hope and glory,

Rev. Bonnie Luft
