God Governs Our Time | Chasing Enough: The Search for what Truly Matters

Ecclesiastes 3:1-15

10-04-2026

Since God governs our time, we can trust him and enjoy his gifts and promise of a hopeful future.

1. What do verses 1-8 teach us about the different seasons of life?

2. What is the difference between enjoying God's gifts and worshipping God's gifts? What are some good gifts that can easily become ultimate things in our lives?

3. Think about a difficult season you have experienced. Looking back, can you see ways God was working through that season even if you couldn't see it at the time? How does Ecclesiastes 3:11—"He has made everything beautiful in its time"—help you think about difficult circumstances?

4. How have the difficult seasons prepared you to help others walk through their own difficult seasons without losing sight of the goodness and kindness of God?

5. What does the permanence of God's work and His promises give us confidence about our future? How can these truths help us remain steady when our circumstances are changing?

6. What season of life are you currently in? What would it look like for you to specifically trust God, enjoy His gifts, and rest in His promises during this season? What is one practical step you can take this week to do that?
