Thanksgiving Offering Envelopes

"Give generously and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the Lord your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to." Deuteronomy 15:10. Throughout the Bible, God explains that our ability to be a blessing and to receive His blessing on our lives is directly related to our generosity. We join with the work of God in ministry to one another and to our world, as we respond to God's goodness with open hearts and open hands. These special envelopes provide each of us with an opportunity to give generously, with thankful hearts, to God's many ways of blessing us. Together, let's do something wonderful for God!

Thank You to Laura MacLeod

For her help this morning with our music ministry.

Next Sunday, October 18 is the PEI Marathon.

Be sure to allow yourself a bit of extra time - an extra 15 minutes or so - to arrive at church. Marathon workers have been posted at the main intersections around the Prince Street churches - simply tell the workers that you are attending Zion church, and they will let you through.

Gathering for worship will be worth the very minor extra effort

Bible Study

Want to dig deeper into the scripture lesson from Sunday and enjoy conversation about how we live this in our day to day lives? Join one of our small group studies: Here at the church, Tuesday at 7pm (6:30 for fellowship) or Thursday at 10am (9:30 for fellowship) or ask about one of our in home small groups.

The congregation of Mermaid Church would like to thank all who prepared for, took part in and attended our Fall Song Service last Sunday evening and to those who so generously contributed to our new entry. Through God's blessing along with your participation and generosity, we are thrilled to announce that the evening's offerings fully covered the cost of this project.
