Men's Bible Study and Breakfast led by Steve Cook: Tuesday Mornings at 6am at PB Clarks

Join us for a weekly men's Bible study and breakfast as we walk verse by verse through books of the Bible, currently studying the Gospel of Matthew. We'll explore the life and teachings of Jesus, gain practical insight for daily living, and strengthen our faith through fellowship, discussion, and prayer.

All men are welcome. Come hungry, share a meal, and dive into God's Word together!

Women's Precept Bible Study: Daniel (Part Two) led by Kimberly Winesette ~ Tuesdays @ 10am ONLINE beginning September 22

Ladies, please join us for a Precept Bible study on the second half of Daniel. We will be studying how and why the book of Daniel is God's general blueprint for prophecy. We will learn about what the visions and prophecies in this amazing book have to say about world empires, future persecution, and the ultimate, everlasting victory of God. This online study will start on Tuesday, September 22 and end on Tuesday, November 17. Please contact Kimberly Winesette at kimike1@charter.net for more information. (Daniel part one is not required to take part two.)

Young Couples Life Group led by Robin & Lori Zimmerman ~ Tuesdays at 6:30pm beginning October 6

Looking for community, connection, and spiritual growth? Join our new Life Group designed especially for young adult couples. Build meaningful friendships, strengthen your relationship with God, and grow in faith as we study God's Word and do life together. Whether newly married or navigating the early years together, join this supportive and encouraging community.

The Book of Joshua: Courage for Everyday People led by Steve Cook ~ Wednesdays at 6pm beginning September 30

After decades in the wilderness, God's people finally reached the Promised Land, but obstacles still stood in their way. Taking possession of the land God had promised would require strength, courage, and faith.

Our story isn't so different. We also need strength, courage, and faith to face life's challenges. Together, we'll discover what it means to faithfully follow God, no matter what obstacles stand before us.

The eight sessions are based on Louie Giglio's RightNow Media study. We won't be using his content, but if you'd like to watch his short video monologues for each section, they're available on RightNow Media. Our church offers a free account if you don't already have one.

Psalms 23 led by Philip Dixon ~ Wednesdays at 6pm beginning October 7

Many people are familiar with Psalm 23. But because we all know it, we often breeze through the psalm without slowing down long enough to rest in the assurance it offers. In this study, we will be introduced to the great shepherd, the Lord, who promises to provide for every need of his flock. This psalm teaches profound truths about our loving and protective God. As we study this psalm, we'll encounter a life-transforming question: Do you trust the Lord to care for your needs?

When Your Way is not Working led by Kliff Joyce ~ Thursday evenings at 6:30pm beginning October 8

Feeling overwhelmed, discouraged, or out of sync? This group study will explore how abiding in Christ can transform our daily lives, helping us find rest, overcome distractions, and experience the lasting fruit that comes from a Biblically-based relationship with God.

STARTING POINT

OCTOBER 11 @ 10AM

If you are new to Jefferson, please join us for Starting Point at 10 AM on the second floor. Even if you missed the first two weeks, we encourage you to join us today. During this 4 week session, we will highlight Jefferson Christian Church's mission and values, providing you with a better understanding of who we are and what we are about.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Luke 7:36-50

³⁶ When one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. ³⁷ A woman in that town who lived a sinful life learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, so she came there with an alabaster jar of perfume. ³⁸ As she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them. ³⁹ When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner." ⁴⁰ Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." "Tell me, teacher," he said. ⁴¹ "Two people owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii,[a] and the other fifty. ⁴² Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he forgave the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?" ⁴³ Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven." "You have judged correctly," Jesus said. ⁴⁴ Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet. ⁴⁶ You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. ⁴⁷ Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little." ⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." ⁴⁹ The other guests began to say among themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" ⁵⁰ Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

The clearer we see Jesus, the clearer we see ourselves—and that changes the way we live.

Don't let your image become more important than your relationship with Jesus.

When we see Jesus CLEARLY and surrender our lives to Him, our lives become an INVITATION for others to see Him clearly too.
