Covenant & Commandments

"I love you so much," God said to the people. "I have cared for you like a mama eagle cares for her babies. I want you to live happy and peaceful lives. I want you to love me and love and care for each other. So I have some rules for you."

"What kind of rules?" the people asked.

"First, rules about me. Remember that I am your God, that my name is special, and that I want you to rest and spend time with me. Second, rules about how to live together. Do not hurt each other, lie, steal, or wish for other people's things. Instead, care for each other. Help each other."

A woman smiled. "What a gift! Those rules will help us have wonderful lives!"

A man agreed. "You have cared for us, God, and we will listen to you."

REMEMBER THIS

COMMANDMENTS

God gave rules and laws to show God's people how to live and how to love.

EAGLE PUZZLER

There are lots of different kinds of eagles in God's beautiful creation. One of the eagles below is a mama with a great big nest of baby eagles to take care of. Use the clues to figure out which one is the mama. (Answer on back)

- 1) She is not looking to the right.
- 2) She does not have a ribbon.
- 3) She is not flying.

- 4) She is not on the shore.
 - 5) She does not have a white head.
- Which one is the mama? _____

Did You Know?

Moses wrote down more than 600 laws for God's people. In the United States we have thousands of laws, and they change so fast, no one can even estimate how many there are!

TRY IT AT HOME!

With your family, make a list of your household rules. Talk about how they are a gift that helps everyone get along. Post the rules on the refrigerator for all to see.
