Complete each blank as we review the lesson. Points 1–8 recap previous sessions; points 9–25 focus on the Millennium and what follows.

1. The Church Age

The Church Age is the present period in which believers proclaim the _____, make disciples, and serve as Christ's witnesses. We carry out His mission while awaiting His return.
Scripture: Matthew 28:19–20.

2. Signs of the Times

Jesus described wars, famines, earthquakes, and other troubles as _____ preceding the end. These signs encourage readiness without giving us permission to set dates.
Scripture: Matthew 24:6–8.

3. The Rapture of the Church

The dead in Christ will rise, and living believers will be _____ with them to meet the Lord. The Assemblies of God teaches that the Church's rapture is imminent and precedes the Tribulation.
Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 4:16–17.

4. The First Half of the Tribulation

In the prophetic framework we have studied, Daniel's final "week" represents _____. The coming ruler, understood as the Antichrist, confirms a covenant and breaks its provisions at the midpoint.
Scripture: Daniel 9:27.

5. The Second Half of the Tribulation

The final three and a half years bring intensified persecution and the _____. Revelation describes the beast exercising authority for forty-two months.
Scripture: Matthew 24:21; Revelation 13:5.

6. Events in Heaven During the Tribulation

In this teaching framework, believers' _____ and the marriage celebration of the Lamb take place in heaven during the Tribulation. Scripture reveals these events without giving a complete schedule of everything occurring in heaven.
Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:10; Revelation 19:7–8.

7. Armageddon and the Second Coming
The kings gather at _____, associated with Megiddo. Jesus returns visibly and defeats the forces assembled against Him; the gathering and Christ's victory are related parts of this final confrontation.
Scripture: Revelation 16:16; Revelation 19:19, 21.
8. The Beast, False Prophet, and Satan
The Antichrist—the beast—and the false prophet are thrown alive into the _____. Satan is bound in the abyss for a thousand years, preventing him from deceiving the nations during that period.
Scripture: Revelation 19:20; Revelation 20:2–3.
9. The Meaning of the Millennium
“Millennium” means _____ years. The Assemblies of God teaches that Christ returns before this period and personally reigns on earth throughout it.
Scripture: Revelation 20:6.
10. Jesus Reigns in Righteousness
Christ's government will establish _____ and justice. He will judge rightly, defend the poor, and deal decisively with wickedness.
Scripture: Isaiah 11:4–5.
11. The Saints Reign with Christ
Christ's redeemed people will share in His reign and serve as _____ of God and Christ. Revelation specifically includes faithful witnesses who suffered under the beast.
Scripture: Revelation 20:4, 6.
12. Israel Receives Her Messiah
The Assemblies of God affirms the future salvation of _____ through Jesus Christ. This means Israel's acceptance of her Messiah, not salvation through ancestry or a separate covenant that bypasses Christ.
Scripture: Romans 11:26–27.
13. Jerusalem and the Worship of the King
Prophecy describes surviving nations coming to _____ to worship the Lord as King. In the premillennial understanding, this city has a central role in the worship and government of Christ's kingdom.
Scripture: Zechariah 14:16.
14. Peace Among the Nations
Christ's reign establishes universal _____. Nations turn weapons into agricultural tools and cease preparing for war.
Scripture: Micah 4:3–4.
15. Harmony in Creation
Isaiah describes harmony among animals and an earth filled with the _____ of the Lord. The Assemblies of God uses this prophecy to describe the peaceful conditions of Christ's millennial kingdom.
Scripture: Isaiah 11:6, 9.
16. Human Life During the Millennium
The usual premillennial interpretation includes _____ living under

Christ's rule alongside glorified saints. Isaiah describes children, long life, homes, and productive work; this passage still mentions death, unlike the eternal state.

Scripture: Isaiah 65:20–22.

17. Satan Is Released Briefly

At the end of the thousand years, Satan is _____ for a short time.

Scripture states that this will happen but does not specify its exact duration or fully explain why God permits it.

Scripture: Revelation 20:3, 7.

18. Satan Deceives the Nations Again

Satan gathers people from the nations into a final _____, described as Gog and Magog. Their response demonstrates that living under ideal conditions does not automatically produce willing obedience to God.

Scripture: Revelation 20:8.

19. God Defeats the Final Rebellion

The rebels surround the saints and the beloved city, but _____ from heaven consumes them. God ends their assault through His decisive intervention.

Scripture: Revelation 20:9.

20. Satan's Everlasting Punishment

Satan is thrown into the lake of fire, where the beast and false prophet already are. Their punishment continues _____, and Satan will never again deceive or harm God's people.

Scripture: Revelation 20:10.

21. The Great White Throne Judgment

The wicked dead stand before God's _____. The books are opened, including the Book of Life, and the dead are judged according to their works.

Scripture: Revelation 20:11–13.

22. Death, Hades, and the Lake of Fire

Death and Hades are cast into the lake of fire, called the _____.

Those whose names are absent from the Book of Life are also cast there. Hades is therefore distinguished from the final lake of fire.

Scripture: Revelation 20:14–15.

23. The New Heaven and New Earth

God brings about a _____, where righteousness dwells. John sees the first heaven and earth passed away and the New Jerusalem descending from God.

Scripture: Revelation 21:1–2; 2 Peter 3:13.

24. God Dwells with His People

God will dwell with the redeemed, and there will be _____, mourning, crying, or pain. The suffering of the present fallen world will be gone.

Scripture: Revelation 21:3–4.

25. Eternity in God's Presence

God's servants will serve Him, _____, and reign forever. There will be no curse or night, and the Lord Himself will provide their light. Eternity includes worship, service, fellowship, and life in His presence.

Scripture: Revelation 22:3–5.
