

24 POINTS TO REMEMBER

Lessons from Pastor Diana on Faith, Praise, and Worship

Keep these points where you can return to them. Download this guide to your phone or print it out and place it somewhere you will see it. Let these reminders encourage you to stand in faith, keep your eyes on God, and make praise and worship part of your daily life.

1. Call a fast so we can be like minded.

Sometimes a household fast is needed when the people in the home share the same faith. Fasting helps bring everyone into agreement, quiets distractions, sharpens discernment, and helps us hear God more clearly. Stay the course.

2. Recognize that no one stands a chance against God.

No situation or enemy is greater than God. Remember who He is and keep your confidence in His power.

3. We must see this temple as God's dwelling where the anointing is displayed.

The church is more than a building where we gather for services. This place has been dedicated to the Lord, and His presence is welcome here. It is a place of safety where we can come and seek Him.

4. We must confess God as our answer.

Never see God as part of the problem. Even when you do not know what to do, confess that God is the answer and keep your eyes on Him. God knows the way out.

5. Keep looking to God. He is the answer to every situation.

If you feel as though you do not have an answer, do not quit. Keep looking to God. Instead of begging, go into His presence and worship.

6. Bring His presence into your individual homes.

Your home should have an atmosphere that honors God. If you cannot set the atmosphere throughout the entire house, establish a space of your own where you can be with Him. Let it be a God zone, free from cursing, gossip, and the other things that do not belong in His presence.

7. Do not fear. Fear is looking for attention and respect.

The more attention you give fear, the louder it becomes in your ear. Do not give fear that place. Pay fear no mind and attend to faith.

8. Remember we are in a faith fight.

The enemy is trying to separate you from the faith of God. Fear rises up to attack your faith, so recognize the fight for what it is and keep standing in faith.

9. Remember the war belongs to God and not us.

This battle belongs to God. As you stay close to Him, trust Him to fight for you instead of trying to handle everything in your own strength.

10. Prepare with praise and worship to overthrow every plan of the devil.

Praise and worship help position you to hear from God and receive the plan you need for the day. Do not limit praise and worship to church or occasional moments; make room for it in your everyday life.

11. Maintain your position of faith.

Stay in the Word so that your faith remains strong. You must keep feeding your faith if you are going to maintain your position.

12. Don't waver. Don't quit. And don't doubt.

Do not let questions, discouragement, or doubt pull you away from trusting God. The enemy opposes you because you belong to God. Keep your confidence in Him.

13. Speak the word of faith only.

It can be challenging to speak faith when what you see looks different. Still, do not let the situation dictate your words. Speak in agreement with faith.

14. Expect God's delivering and saving power to work for you.

Keep an expectation that He is able to move on your behalf.

15. Remember that you are appointed and anointed to bring praise before God.

Praise is not merely an occasional activity. You have been appointed and anointed to bring praise before the Lord. Make praise and worship part of your lifestyle, and enter His presence with thanksgiving.

16. Praise God with a loud voice.

Do not let praise slip. Remember every day what God has already done for you. You have reasons to be thankful, even while you are waiting for more to happen. Get up and praise Him for what He has already brought you through.

17. Believe in your pastors.

Do not go home and speak against your pastors. If you disagree with something, take it to God in prayer. Pray rather than tearing down the people God has placed in leadership, and continue to stand in faith together as a church.

18. Give thanks to God because His love for us never quits. He refuses to give up on us; therefore, don't give up on Him.

You have a great deal to praise God for. He has not given up on you, so do not give up on Him. Remember His unfailing love and give Him thanks.

19. Our enemies will be confused and eliminated.

Praise and worship leaves the enemy confused and unable to carry out his plans. Keep praising God instead of becoming distracted by what the enemy is doing.

20. Our enemies will stumble over themselves.

Pastor Diana teaches that praise and worship can leave the enemy confused and unable to carry out his plans. Keep praising God instead of becoming distracted by what the enemy is doing.

21. Our praise and worship becomes the bridge that transforms our believing to receiving.

Praise and worship are not optional extras; they are required as we walk in victory. Do not let the enemy shut your mouth and silence your praise. Keep believing, praising, and worshiping God.

22. The spoils of every enemy belong to me.

The spoils belong to me. I am not stealing. It is what God promised me. When God brings you through a battle, there can be something left behind for you. Remind yourself of this promise. What the enemy meant for harm can become a testimony of what God has done.

23. Your enemies will watch in fear and wonder because of what God has done for you.

People may look at your life and wonder how you made it through. You know the answer: you serve a great God. Let what He has done in your life be a testimony.

24. God will cause you to live in peace, nothing missing and nothing broken.

God's peace touches every aspect of your life. You can have a life where everything is working and nothing is broken. We must add our part through praise and worship, raising our voices above pride and refusing to be ashamed to praise God.

This praise must be a loud praise because God requires it. You cannot do normal.
Keep your eyes on God. Stay in faith. Keep praising Him.
