

“He Must Return” Lesson 2 Outline
Selected Scriptures
18 October 2026

We opened with the thought that Jesus must return because of the promise of God.

Some say that we should not consider the prophecies of Jesus’ return as being literal but as being spiritual and they will even try to confuse His first coming with His second.

If there are prophecies that Jesus didn’t fulfill the first time, He’d better come again, or God is a _____.

The credibility of God is at stake.

There are still so many prophecies that must be completed.

The amillennialist says, “There’s never any earthly _____.”

Demons control _____, don’t they?

Has Jesus Christ returned to have world dominion and given to His saints an eternal kingdom? Not yet.

God said His Messiah would fulfill all these prophecies. If He didn’t do it the first time, believe it, He’ll be back and do it the second time.

Jesus must return not only because of the promise of God, but because of the _____ of _____.

Most of the _____ are related to His return.

John 14:3, “I will come again and receive you to Myself.” We’re not waiting for an event; we’re waiting for a _____.

If someone says, “I believe in the deity of Christ, but I don’t believe in His second coming,” it is a contradictory statement that makes no sense.

The parable of Luke 19 says the nobleman came, they rejected him, and he returned in _____. Jesus came, they rejected Him and He will return in _____.

Scriptures cited: Ps. 2:6-9; Isa. 9:6, 7; Matt. 25:31; Micah 4:3; Isa. 11:10, 33:20, 35:1-2; Rom. 8:22-23; Isa. 35:8, 9, 10, 45:23; Jer. 23:5; Luke 19:14; Rev. 20; Ezek. 21:25, 26, 27; Dan. 7:13-14, 18; Zech. 14:4, 5, 7-9; Num. 23:19; Rom. 3:4; Titus 1; John 13:1, 21-22, 14:1-2, 3; Matt. 24, Matt. 25, Matt. 24:27, 30-31, 25:31; Luke 19:11, 12-14, 15, 26-27; Matt. 24, Matt. 25; John 14; Luke 19