

I remember my affliction and my wandering,
the bitterness and the gall. I well remember them, and my soul is downcast within me. Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope: Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him."

- Lamentations 3:19-24

Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

- Hebrews 10:23-25

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfector of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

- Hebrews 12:1-3

Joshua 4 – Pastor JD Winters – October 11, 2026

Remember God's faithfulness with _____.

Tell the next _____ of His goodness.

Don't confuse the _____ for the miracle.

The God who brought us this far isn't _____ with us yet.

God's faithfulness in the past gives us _____
for the future.

We aren't just guardians of the past, we're _____
of the future.

Questions for Further Discussion:

(Great for Life Groups, family devotionals, or with a friend)

1. What are some ways that we can use stories from God's faithfulness in the past to encourage the next generation?
2. What can be beautiful about nostalgia? What are the risks or downsides of being overly nostalgic?
3. What is the relationship between remembering the past and remaining obedient in the future?
4. What does it mean to be stewards of the future? How can we faithfully care for the future of a church body?

DEEPLY ROOTED

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
— 2026 —

So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in Him, rooted and built up in Him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. - Colossians 2:6-7
