The Anglican Cycle of Prayer is a shared daily prayer schedule that unites Anglicans worldwide in praying for specific dioceses and provinces of the Anglican Communion.

[How It Works

- Sundays: Prayers focus on a member church or province of the global Anglican Communion.
- Monday to Saturday: Prayers focus on one or more specific dioceses and their bishops each day.
- Goal: Over the course of the schedule, every diocese and bishop in the worldwide communion is prayed for.

Current Schedule

- It includes roughly 855 dioceses across 42 provinces.

Where to Find It

- You can view or download the full calendar schedule directly from the – the Anglican Communion website.
- Local national churches, such as the Anglican Church of Canada, also provide regional and ecumenical cycle resources.
