WELCOME

Welcome to Clearview United Methodist Church. Every week, we look forward to this time to gather as a community. We are glad YOU are here today with us!

You can use this worship guide to help lead through worship and throughout the week. We truly hope you enjoy your time here this morning and hope you return soon.

Some logistics you may find helpful:

- Worship runs about an hour and fifteen minutes, sometimes a bit shorter & sometimes a bit longer.
- Grab a nametag from the table in the East Wing. If you are a guest, our Hospitality Team will happily make one for you.
- Childcare is available for non-school-aged children (infants through 4 years) in Room #10. Children in Grades K through 5 are invited to worship until after the Children's Moment, then go to Sunday School in Room #11.
 - Help us create the best learning environment we can by leaving toys at home. Snacks for younger children are ok but should not be brought for elementary-aged children.
 - Please encourage your child(ren) to use the restroom before church starts.
- Busy bags are available for children (or adults) who would like to keep their hands busy during the worship service.
- A restroom is in the Care & Share Room to the right of the front of the Sanctuary. Additional restrooms are outside in the courtyard.
- Prayer Cards are available in the pew in front of you and at all entrances. Please place your prayer card in the offering plate or a prayer box. It is our joy and privilege to be praying with and for you.
- We have several ways you can give financially to support Clearview's mission.
 1. Place cash/check in the offering plate/boxes or mail to the church.
 2. Text any amount to (727) 513-5557.
 3. Visit clearviewumc.org/give.
 4. Use your bank's bill payer system.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Community Dinner in the Pumpkin Patch! Sunday, October 25, 5–6:30 pm – Good food, friendly faces, and fall fun! Join us for a FREE Community Dinner surrounded by pumpkins and neighbors. Bring a friend, come as you are, and enjoy a meal together. Everyone is welcome—there's a place for YOU at the table!

The Pumpkin Patch Homestretch — We Need YOU! We're almost at the finish line of our 29th Annual Clearview Pumpkin Patch, and we still need your help! Sign up for a shift (or more!) on our website or in the East Wing after worship. Let's finish strong, welcome our neighbors, and make these final days the best yet! Every helping hand counts!

Thankful for the Cup: Our Commitment to God – As part of our Thankful for the Cup stewardship series, everyone received a stewardship packet during worship. Inside, you'll find a welcome letter, service guide, church budget, and commitment card. We encourage you to prayerfully review these materials and consider how God is calling you to share your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness in the coming year.

On Nov 8, Celebration & Commitment Sunday, we will bring our completed commitment cards forward during worship as a joyful expression of gratitude and faith. Together, we'll celebrate God's abundant blessings and the joy of offering our whole lives to God. "My cup overflows." — Psalm 23:5 God, here is my cup. Use all that I am and all that I have for your purposes!

All Saints' Sunday – On Nov 1, we will celebrate All Saints Sunday, a sacred time to remember with love and gratitude those who have gone before us. We will give thanks for the people who have poured into our cups, shaped our lives, nurtured our faith, and pointed us toward Christ. We will also pause to remember and honor those who have died during the past year.

We invite you to bring a photograph of someone who has passed away and whose life has been a blessing to yours. We will place these photographs on a special remembrance table during worship, creating a beautiful, visible reminder of the lives, love, and faith that continue to shape us.

Together, we will remember, give thanks, and celebrate how God's love continues to overflow through the lives of those who have touched ours.

Come Together in Gratitude! Community Thanksgiving Worship - There's something beautiful about coming together as a community to give thanks! Join us for a special Community Thanksgiving Worship Service as we welcome our Gulfport neighbors and all four churches of the South Pinellas Connection for an evening of food, fellowship, and heartfelt gratitude.

We'll begin at 6 pm with a simple meal, followed by worship at 7 pm on Tuesday, Nov 24. This won't be just another worship service! Come with expectant hearts for an interactive, creative, and meaningful experience as we celebrate God's goodness, share our gratitude, and discover the blessings that connect us.

Bring a friend, invite a neighbor, and come ready to give thanks! There's room at the table for everyone!

South Pinellas Connection Church Conference – Join us for our South Pinellas Connection Church Conference on Sunday, Nov 1, at 1:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall at First UMC Gulfport. Our District Superintendent, Rev. Emily Hotho, will preside as Clearview, First Gulfport, St. Luke's, and Lakewood come together for this important gathering in the life of our churches.

Please bring finger food to share! Our friends at First Gulfport will provide drinks and paper goods as they graciously host us. We look forward to a meaningful afternoon of fellowship, connection, and shared ministry. Everyone is encouraged to attend!

Last chance to wear your PUMPKIN PATCH SHIRT to Worship 🎃

With just 6 more days of our community Pumpkin Patch to go, it's time to plan for undecorating. Next Sunday, Nov 1, wear your patch shirt to church and IMMEDIATELY following worship, come to the patch to help take down all our fabulous decorations. The more hands we have, the less time it will take. We need your help one more time, please! Thank you, Jill, Cindi & Judy Lealman Elementary Trunk-or-Treat – Lealman Avenue Elementary has invited Clearview to join their Family Night Friday, October 30, from 5:30–7 pm! Volunteers are needed to decorate a trunk and pass out candy. Candy donations are also welcome! Contact the church office if you’d like to participate.

Clearview Leadership Team Meeting – The Clearview Church Leadership Board will meet on Tuesday, Nov 3, at 6:30 pm. All board members are encouraged to attend as we continue planning and guiding Clearview's ministries and mission.

Fall Back! Daylight Saving Time Ends Nov 1 - Don't forget to turn your clocks BACK one hour before going to bed on Saturday, October 31! Enjoy that extra hour of sleep, and we'll see you in worship—right on time!

THIS WEEK'S "AT HOME" DEVOTIONAL

Pouring Out Our Cup to Fill Others: 1 Corinthians 10:16–17

GATHERING

Light a candle and place an empty cup beside a full one to remember that God’s blessing invites us to share rather than hoard.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Generous God, you have filled our lives with grace. Teach us to share the love, peace, and hope we have received. Keep us from hoarding your blessings or overlooking our neighbors’ needs. Give us wisdom to make faithful commitments and generosity that flows from gratitude. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CARING CONVERSATION - Take a few moments to check in with one another.

Highs & Lows

- What is one thing that brought you joy this week?
- Who shared kindness, peace, or encouragement with you this week?

THINKING ABOUT THE UPCOMING WEEK’S SCRIPTURE

The cup of blessing and the shared bread join us to Christ and to one another. We do not receive grace only for ourselves. As one body, we are called to pour out love through service, generosity, and practical care for our neighbors.

- What has God poured into your life during this series?
- How does Communion connect receiving grace with sharing grace?
- What is the difference between generosity and giving beyond healthy limits?
- What commitment would help your gratitude become lasting service?

DAILY BIBLE READINGS - As you read this week, ask: How can the grace we receive become blessing poured out for others?

DAY	READING	THEME
Sunday	Romans 5:1–5	God’s Love Poured into Us
Monday	Psalms 23:1–6	My Cup Overflows
Tuesday	1 Kings 17:8–16	A Widow Shares Her Meal
Wednesday	John 13:1–17	Jesus Takes the Servant’s Place
Thursday	2 Corinthians 9:6–12	Generosity Produces Thanksgiving
Friday	Galatians 6:2–10	Carry Burdens and Do Good
Saturday	Philippians 2:1–11	The Self-Giving Love of Christ
Sunday	1 Corinthians 10:16–17	The Cup of Blessing

If your household includes children, feel free to use a children’s Bible or summarize the readings in simple language.

DEVOTIONAL

An overflowing cup is not an invitation to hold more tightly. It is an invitation to share. Throughout this series, we have noticed what God gives to individuals, what we hold together, and what God can do through faithful offerings. Now we ask where that blessing will flow.

Paul describes Communion as a sharing in Christ. The cup and bread connect us to Jesus and make clear that we belong to one another. What happens at the table shapes how we live beyond it: we receive grace so that grace can become visible through our lives.

The widow of Zarephath shares a meal in a season of scarcity, and God sustains her household. Jesus kneels to wash his disciples' feet, showing that love takes the servant's place. These stories invite trust and generosity, not a promise that giving will always produce financial abundance.

Pouring out our cup can mean sharing money, but it also means offering patience, attention, skills, hospitality, forgiveness, and advocacy. One kindness can open the way for another. A person who receives encouragement may find strength to encourage someone else. We cannot control that chain of blessing, but we can help it begin.

A full life is one that keeps pouring out. This does not require exhaustion or ignoring our own needs. Jesus also rested and prayed. Sustainable generosity receives God's grace, honors limits, and joins others in sharing the work. We pour from relationship with Christ, not from a need to prove our worth.

On Commitment Sunday, consider a thoughtful promise of prayer, presence, service, and giving. What can you offer faithfully in the coming season? Let your commitment reflect gratitude rather than pressure. The cup God fills becomes a blessing when we share its gifts with the world.

PRAY TOGETHER

Invite each person to name one blessing they have received and one commitment they want to make in response. Then pray together:

God of the overflowing cup, thank you for the grace we receive in Christ. Make us one with him and with each other. Guide our commitments so that they are generous, wise, and faithful. Use our gifts to meet needs, strengthen community, and bring hope. May our lives keep sharing the love you pour into us. Amen.

MEALTIME PRAYER

God of the shared table, thank you for this meal and your generous love. Help us nourish others through kindness, service, and gifts freely offered. Amen.

SERVICE CHALLENGE - This is one way we share God's love with the world.

Write one specific commitment of time, service, prayer, or giving for the coming season. Discuss it with your household or a trusted friend, then take the first step. Choose a commitment that is both generous and sustainable.

CLOSING & BLESSING

Extinguish your candle as a reminder that the grace you receive is meant to shine through your generosity and service.

With permission, make the sign of the cross on one another's hands or foreheads and say: "Receive God's grace and share it freely. Let your cup become a blessing. Go in peace to love and serve."
