

Week 4: Eternal Glory in Christ

Sermon Series: Grace and Glory

Key Verses: 1 Peter 5:11; Hebrews 12:2

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: God’s grace sustains us through every season and leads us to a life of worship, surrender, and eternal hope.

Peter closes his letter with a simple declaration: “To Him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen.” We spend a lot of life looking at what is right in front of us. Sometimes the greatest thing faith can do is change where we are looking.

Let Grace Lead You To _____

- Read: 1 Peter 5:6–11. After everything Peter has said about suffering, humility, anxiety, spiritual warfare, perseverance, and restoration, he turns the attention back to God, because after everything he has seen and everything he has endured, he still knows: (1) God is worthy, and (2) That is worship.
- Worship does not deny the pain. Worship declares that the pain is not greater than God.

Remember Who Is Really In _____

- Read: 1 Peter 5:11. Peter is reminding believers who were living under human authorities and facing real opposition: God is still on the throne.
- That means you can stop carrying the pressure of trying to be God in your own life. Read: Hebrews 12:2. God does not lose control just because you cannot see what He is doing.

Give God The _____

- Everything Peter has taught throughout this letter eventually comes back to this: God gets the glory.
- Every victory is ultimately a testimony to the faithfulness of God.

Week 4: Eternal Glory in Christ

Sermon Series: Grace and Glory

Key Verses: 1 Peter 5:11; Hebrews 12:2

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: God’s grace sustains us through every season and leads us to a life of worship, surrender, and eternal hope.

Peter closes his letter with a simple declaration: “To Him be the dominion forever and ever. Amen.” We spend a lot of life looking at what is right in front of us. Sometimes the greatest thing faith can do is change where we are looking.

Let Grace Lead You To _____

- Read: 1 Peter 5:6–11. After everything Peter has said about suffering, humility, anxiety, spiritual warfare, perseverance, and restoration, he turns the attention back to God, because after everything he has seen and everything he has endured, he still knows: (1) God is worthy, and (2) That is worship.
- Worship does not deny the pain. Worship declares that the pain is not greater than God.

Remember Who Is Really In _____

- Read: 1 Peter 5:11. Peter is reminding believers who were living under human authorities and facing real opposition: God is still on the throne.
- That means you can stop carrying the pressure of trying to be God in your own life. Read: Hebrews 12:2. God does not lose control just because you cannot see what He is doing.

Give God The _____

- Everything Peter has taught throughout this letter eventually comes back to this: God gets the glory.
- Every victory is ultimately a testimony to the faithfulness of God.

Live With Eternity In _____

- Peter wants them to remember that what they are experiencing now is temporary. That is why Paul could say that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory still to come.
- Suffering may be part of your story, but it is not the final chapter.

Let Your Life Say _____

- Peter finishes with one word: Amen, which means: (1) It is true, (2) Let it be so, and (3) I agree.
- He is declaring: Everything I have told you about God is true.
- His grace is real, His promises are true, His kingdom is eternal, and His glory is coming.
- Amen.
- Amen is faith agreeing with God before we see the outcome. Because your confidence is not in the circumstance. Your confidence is in Christ.

Upcoming Events
	November 8th	Baptism Sunday
	November 8th	Charlie Brown Thanksgiving at 1:00 pm
	November 7th	Christmas Yardsale 8-2
	November 15th - December 6th	Used Toy Drive
	November 22nd	Church Potluck
	December 13th	Holiday Dinner & The Star Movie
	December 20th	Children's and Teen's Gift Give-A-Way at 11:00 a.m. - 12:15 during service ONLY.

Live With Eternity In _____

- Peter wants them to remember that what they are experiencing now is temporary. That is why Paul could say that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory still to come.
- Suffering may be part of your story, but it is not the final chapter.

Let Your Life Say _____

- Peter finishes with one word: Amen, which means: (1) It is true, (2) Let it be so, and (3) I agree.
- He is declaring: Everything I have told you about God is true.
- His grace is real, His promises are true, His kingdom is eternal, and His glory is coming.
- Amen.
- Amen is faith agreeing with God before we see the outcome. Because your confidence is not in the circumstance. Your confidence is in Christ.

Upcoming Events
	November 8th	Baptism Sunday
	November 8th	Charlie Brown Thanksgiving at 1:00 pm
	November 7th	Christmas Yardsale 8-2
	November 15th - December 6th	Used Toy Drive
	November 22nd	Church Potluck
	December 13th	Holiday Dinner & The Star Movie
	December 20th	Children's and Teen's Gift Give-A-Way at 11:00 a.m. - 12:15 during service ONLY.