

WAYNE & SUE ROYCE
ABWE — Cape Town, South Africa

We picked up our Visas on Monday morning and were quite surprised to open the package and find that all three of our Visa applications were rejected! This has not happened to us in the twenty years that we have been missionaries here in South Africa. However, times are changing.

The Home Affairs rejected them saying our NPO status for our Simanyene Residential Home and Simanyene Centre does not exist. We proceeded to go to Cape Town to the DSD (Department of Social Development) NPO (Non-Profit Organization) Office on Tuesday and find out what the issues were with our NPOs. Wayne is Director of Simanyene Home and I (Sue) am Director of Simanyene Center. That is how we enter the country. As I addressed the issue with a man there at the NPO office, he told me he has never seen anything like this. He did not even know they had access to the DSD's database. There was absolutely no problem with our NPOs.

The next step is to appeal the decision of the Department of Home Affairs and pray. We will go to Cape Town on Tuesday to submit the appeal. The appeals process takes at least 8-12 months for their answer. During this time, we will not be able to leave South Africa.

We are praying and trusting the Lord for the outcome. Thank you for partnering with us in sharing the gospel. Our future is in His hands, and we know that He guides our steps.

THANKSGIVING OFFERING

During this Thanksgiving season, let's express our gratitude for God's gracious and faithful provision for our needs as a church family. We are blessed with a nice building to use for our ministries and the ability to provide for the needs of our pastors. Through this year's PACT project, in partnership with our missionaries Joe & Monica Steffeck and Children's Relief International, we have been introduced to a village in the Deep Forest region of Rajahmundry, India, where they need a church building and a home for their pastor. We can participate in the work the Lord is doing there by giving special gifts beyond our normal giving for His work here. If you can do that, give those extra gifts in an offering enveloped marked "Thanksgiving Offering" or select the Thanksgiving Offering fund when giving electronically.
