Hope in the Wild - Sermon Reflection Questions

Faith in Public Sermon Series

Personal Reflection Questions

1. Where have you seen God at work in your life, even during a difficult season?

2. What gives you hope when the way forward feels uncertain?

3. How might trusting in God's grace help you face a challenge with greater peace and confidence?

4. Who has helped you stand firm in your faith, and how might you offer that same encouragement to someone else?

5. What is one way you can live more hopefully this week, trusting that God is still at work in you and around you?

Group Reflection Questions

1. Where have you seen signs of hope in our church or community recently? How can we celebrate and build on those things?

2. What helps you hold on to hope when the world feels uncertain? How can we remind one another of these things?

3. How is our church a place where people find strength, encouragement, and a sense of belonging when life gets difficult? Where might we grow this ministry?

4. Peter reminds us that God will restore, strengthen, and establish us. What might it look like for us to help one another experience that promise?

5. What is one way we can help our church and community experience the hope of Jesus in the week ahead?
