A Word From Joe

Can you believe how fast this year has moved along?

We made it through the ice storm, a week later we made it through a "big" snow storm for our area, then in later spring and early summer we made it through a drought.

Then we made it through the really hot temperatures. Then we made it through the rain and all the extra yard work when everything decided to grow like it was spring time.

Now, we're all the way to Thanksgiving. Home and family. The kitchen. Kids and grandkids. The Detroit Lions losing another football game that afternoon. Turkey. Pumpkin pie. Rolls. Six million calories. Don't leave out the nap.

But somewhere in here we left out God. We left out thanking God for all of our blessings. We tend to do that a lot of times. Through all we've been through this year. did we thank God for being with us through all of it?

During this Thanksgiving season, let's not forget to say thank you to family, to friends, and especially to thank God!

Blessings, Joe

P.S. Eat an extra slice of pie. It's good for you!
