Sermon notes "Always give thanks: Chosen"

~What words or phrases from this passage stood out to you most?

~How do we exclude people?

~What kind of example do you think makes faith feel believable or attractive to others?

~What does it mean in scripture when someone is "chosen?"

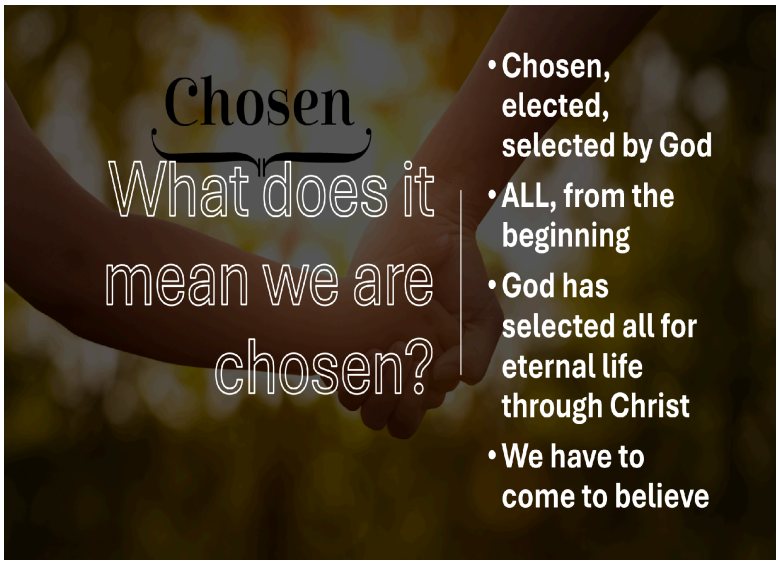

~How does being chosen—or being excluded—shape one's identity?

~How am I being an example of a Christ follower?

~How will I choose to live out my chosen-ness this week?

~What needs to change so I can?

~How will I help others understand they are chosen by God?

How do we live it out?

- Look to Christ
- Pray and listen
- Together as the body of Christ
- Choose to love
- Pursue holiness and integrity
- Practice forgiveness

