Around Gloster Street

OUR GOSPEL MEETING IS HERE!

Our Gospel Meeting at Gloster Street begins this Sunday, November 1. We are very excited to have Rusty Hills to present lessons from God's Word during this effort. Rusty serves as pulpit minister at the Chase Park church of Christ in Huntsville, Alabama. He is a faithful gospel preacher and a good friend, and I look forward to the lessons he will present. Please support this Gospel Meeting with your prayers and your presence. Additionally, invite your friends, neighbors, and relatives to join us. There will be a meal after the Sunday morning services, and meals will take place in the Annex before the services on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. More information can be found about our Gospel Meeting on the inside of this week's Gloster Street Messenger.

TRUNK or TREAT

We had a wonderful time this past Sunday at both Trunk or Treat and the period of fellowship that occurred afterward. Thanks to everyone who participated in this event. It is a blessing to have so many young families and children in the congregation at Gloster Street.

ACKNOWLEDGING JESUS

I hope you will join me in reading through the Gospel of John during the months of October through December. My lessons on Sunday morning will be taken from this book as we seek to better learn from the moments John uses to introduce us to the Son of God.

DON'T FORGET TO PRAY (1 TIMOTHY 2:1-4)

May God Bless You All!

—JUST FOR FUN—

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS FROM LEVITICUS 6:

1. If one deceives his neighbor and takes something of the neighbor, what was he to do to make amends?

2. What offering was to be made?

3. How long was the altar of burnt offering kept burning?

4. What kind of clothing did the priest wear when making a burnt offering?

5. The fire of the altar of burnt offering was lit how often?

6. The leftover flour used in offerings was eaten by whom?

7. What was not to be baked in that flour?

8. The sin offering was to be eaten by whom (v. 26)?

9. What happened if the flesh of the sin offering was touched?

10. If someone touched something unclean, what did it make them?

Last week's answers: 1. Unclean, 2. Two turtledoves or pigeons, 3. Not divide it, 4. Christ, 5. Any bone, 6. Ram without blemish, 7. Make amends for any harm done, 8. God.

—ANNOUNCEMENTS—
