ANGLICAN PARISH OF SALT SPRING ISLAND

ALL SAINTS BY-THE-SEA

Shiya'hwt • SYOW̱T • Ganges Village

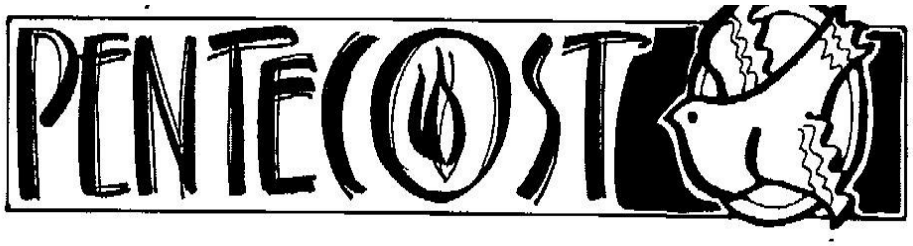

We gather across this island, from Stu'lan and Xwaaqw'um, from T̓ÁŁEN̓ and W̱ENÁ,NEĆ.
Generations of HUL'Q'UMI'NUM' and SENĆOŦEN-speaking Coast Salish people have made this their home from time immemorial, and their encounter with the Creator in this place goes before our own.

Rector: The Rev. Juli Mallett
Music Director & Organist: David Storm

All are welcome.

The sound of children is always welcome in worship.
There is a nursery with toys on the garden side of the sanctuary.
Please stay for refreshments after the service!

The Kontakion for the Departed

Give rest, O Christ, to your servants with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more,
neither sighing, but life everlasting.

"You only are immortal, the creator and maker of all;
and we are mortal, formed of the earth,
and to earth shall we return.
For so did you ordain when you created me, saying,
You are dust, and to dust you shall return."
All of us go down to the dust;
yet even at the grave we make our song:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

• ArtSpring Presents — TULUA

TODAY, November 1st | 2:30 to 4:30pm | $10 — $45

Young but traditional — Tulua have been described by the Independent as "one of the hottest young prospects in traditional Irish music". Hailing from the south east of Ireland, Tulua successfully toured Canada in 2025 — including as official showcase artists at the 2025 Folk Alliance International Conference in Montreal — and are now bringing their second album to our shores. Meaning 'tribe of many paths' Tulua have been deeply exploring and sharing music of their local area and other parts of Ireland, bringing the audience with them on a captivating journey of songs about love, tunes about life, and everything in between. Their passion for playing music has evolved together from a young age, and they combine their core of fiddles, voice, flute, guitar and piano with a host of other instruments. Expect a toe-tapping, fresh and fun evening

• All Saints' After Dark presents — Ahmed Moneka

Thursday, Nov. 5th | 7:00 to 8:30pm | All Saints' by-the-Sea

Drawing on his Afro-Sufi heritage, Juno-nominated Ahmed Moneka creates music that feels like a celebration of life. Born in Baghdad to an Afro-Iraqi family, Ahmed arrived in Toronto as a refugee after appearing in a film about gay rights. As an actor and activist turned musician, he now leads an all-star global ensemble and has performed across Canada and the U.S., as well as in Colombia, Chile, Morocco and South Korea.

His album Kanzafula was nominated for the 2025 Juno Award for Global Music Album of the Year, the first Iraqi-Canadian record to be nominated for a Juno. He has also won a Dora Award and the Stingray Rising Star Award in Toronto. On stage and screen, Ahmed co-wrote King Gilgamesh & the Man of the Wild, which earned five Dora nominations, and he has worked with the Canadian Opera Company, Soulpepper, Crow's Theatre and the National Arts Centre. He's currently working with The Tragically Hip on the 2026 production of It's a Good Life If You Don't Weaken, a musical built on the band's catalogue of Canadian classics.

*Tickets are $30 at the door | Treats provided by The Woodshed

ANNOUNCEMENTS

In our Parish—

• CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

The parish will once again be hosting this lovely, seasonal event. It will be held on Sat, November 28th. As in past years, there will be delicious Christmas cake and tourtiere available Crafts, needlework, jewelry and other various treasures will be found. A delicious lunch will be served.

Contributions of crafts, needlework and of course baking are always welcome. As well, you could check your closets for items that would be great gifts for someone else and would be most appreciated at the treasures table. These items could be dropped off at the parish office anytime or may be given to Dovene. If you have any questions or would like to help please speak to Dovene or Judy. Our Christmas bazaar is such a wonderful parish event and (in it's own way) an outreach to the community. Thank you so much for all your support.

• Please join us for Lectio Divina and Evening Prayer services every Tuesday & Wednesday from 4:00 to 5pm and 5:00 to 6pm respectively.

In the Diocese—

• LAND AND TREATIES ON VANCOUVER ISLAND

Saturday, Nov. 7th | Christ Church Cathedral | 10:00 to 11:30am

What is the history of treaties on Vancouver Island? How were these agreements understood by Indigenous leaders? Why were so few treaties signed elsewhere in British Columbia? Parishioner & historian Jesse Robertson will join us for a discussion of land and treaties on Vancouver Island, inviting us to consider the way colonial history continues to shape our lives in the present. *To Register please visit:

The Gathering

We gather on the lands of SENĆOŦEN- and Hul'q'umi'num'-speaking Coast Salish peoples.

We join our voices with the whole of Creation.

We place our trust in the Creator of all.

God's mercy endures forever.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

The Collect of the Day

BAS p. 390

Almighty God,
whose chosen servant Abraham obeyed your call,
rejoicing in your promise that in him the family of the earth is blessed, give us faith like his,
that in us your promises may be fulfilled;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

WE ARE SENT INTO THE WORLD

Sending Hymn: Give Thanks for Life See insert….*

Dismissal

BAS p.215

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Postlude: Gabriel's Oboe by Ennio Morricone

Doxology

BAS p.214

Glory to God,
whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation, in the church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Burying of Names

The congregation are invited to proceed to the garden where the nametags of those who have died will be placed into the ground.

We bid farewell from the congregation of the living those who have joined with the whole heavenly host in their eternal home. May their names be with us in memory and their presence be felt at all times and in all places.

With each name tag, the following is said

We remember N.N.
Rest eternal grant to him/her/them, O Lord.

And let light perpetual shine upon him/her/them.

May these souls and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.

The presider offers a blessing.

May the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE STORY OF FAITH IS PROCLAIMED

A Reading from the book of Revelation 7. 9-17

Psalm 34

I will bless the Lord / at all / times;
The praise of God shall / ever be / in my / mouth.
I will glory / in the / Lord;
Let the / humble / hear and re-/joice.

Proclaim with me the greatness / of the / Lord;
Let us exalt the / name of / God to-/gether.
I sought the Lord, who / answered / me
And delivered me / out of / all my / terror.

Look upon God / and be / radiant,
And let not your / faces / be a-/shamed.
I call in my affliction and the / Lord heard / me
And saved / me from / all my / troubles.

The angel / of the / Lord
Encompasses those who fear God and / will de-/liver / them.
Taste and see that the / Lord is / good;
Happy are / they who / trust in / God!

Invitation to Communion:

Communion

All are welcome to receive from Christ's Table.

To receive the bread, place one hand on top of the other. To receive the wine, help guide the chalice to your lips. If you prefer to receive a blessing, cross your arms over your chest. If you require gluten-free bread, please ask.

we remember his death,
we remember his resurrection,
we await His coming in glory.

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving,
to you, Lord of all; ….

….. all honour and glory are yours, almighty father,
now and for ever.

Amen.

An Act in Remembrance of the Dead

Belovèd, we live and move and have our being in the presence of the Living God in whom nothing is lost, nothing is destroyed, and no one is forgotten. In this season of All hallow tide, and on this Feast of All Saints and All Souls, we come before the table of Christ with all those whom we mourn and remember.

Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your loving care, that casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love.

Hear us, Lord.

Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet their living and their dying in the comfort of a holy and certain hope, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love.

Hear us, Lord.

We remember all who have died in this past year.

Names may be offered silently or aloud.

We remember all whose remains we have recently buried and all whose bodies have gone unclaimed.

Names may be offered.

We remember those deaths which weigh heavily upon us and those who have died estranged from those who loved them.

Names may be offered.

We remember all whose lives are known to God alone. May the whole company of heaven be with us now.

Almighty and ever-living God, grant us grace to entrust all who have died to your never-failing love which sustained them in this life. Receive them into the arms of your mercy, and remember them according to the favour you bear for your people.

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer 3

BAS p.224

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, gracious God,
creator of heaven and earth;
in the multitude of your saints
you have surrounded us with so great a cloud of witnesses, that we, rejoicing in their fellowship,
may run with patience the race that is set before us,
and together with them receive the crown of glory that never fades away.
Therefore with angels and archangels and with all who have served you in every age, we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Therefore, together with our ancestors in faith and with your beloved creation we sing:

Sanctus 719

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, Lord our God,
for the goodness and love….

…… Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, Father, according to his command
