Celebrating a Milestone

On September 29, Father Tony celebrated his 32nd Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood, and of course, the All Saints' family was on hand to commemorate this wonderful milestone on the following Sunday (October 4).

Father Tony cuts the cake during a Coffee Hour celebration in recognition

Message from the Rector

My Dear Friends:

A Review and Update on our Fire Suppression System

In this newsletter, I want to review and update you on the upcoming installation of the fire suppression system in our church and parish hall (Houg Hall). I am sure some of you may have looked up at the roof when arriving for worship or while sitting in the pew, hoping to see signs of progress and wondering when work will begin. Although there is no visible activity yet, important preparations are bringing us closer to installation.

As you are aware, on June 20, 2026, we launched an appeal to match two grants of $25,000 each, generously offered by the directors of the New York–based Rommel Wilson Memorial Fund. I also shared that we reached the matching goal on July 25. Including both grants, we raised $116,085 for this important project. Thank you to everyone who made this possible.

The Vestry and I awarded the installation contract to Pye Barker Fire and Safety-DBA, which handles fire and safety needs across our church campus. The estimated cost is $131,365.50, excluding unforeseen expenses that may arise during construction. Funds from the appeal, combined with earlier gifts, would cover the full cost. In addition, on Sunday, August 2, between the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. services, we invited Graham Cullenberg, Pye Barker's Fire Sprinkler Sales Representative, to explain the installation process and the work ahead to the congregation.

Planning and preparation are underway. We have paid Pye Barker a 30% down payment so preparatory work can begin. Our Junior Warden, Harry Kapple, has met with David Tobin, who will design the system and pipe layout. These plans will guide installation and are needed before we can seek permits.

As I understand it, the permit process is awaiting completion of the design plans. Mr. Tobin brings specialized expertise to this work, but his busy schedule has contributed to what may seem like a delay. While progress is not yet visible at the church, work continues behind the scenes. Once the plans are finalized, the project can move to its next stage.

I will keep you informed as the project progresses. Thank you for your patience, generosity, love, and

With love and blessings,

Father Tony

Endowment

Sunday, December 20

After the 10 a.m. Eucharist, we invite you in assisiting the Altar Guild Team in helping to decorate the Church building, also known as "Greening of the Church."

Autumn greetings from your Endowment Board! We are approaching the church's busy season that puts all of us on our toes. This Board is no exception. We are already planning our 2027 events.

We are hoping to have our Annual Reception on Friday, January 29, at 5:00 p.m., which is open to all members of our congregation and any friends who want to join us. We think we have a real show stopper this year. In our ever-changing world, personal safety is an issue we would rather not think about but being "forewarned is forearmed." For the sake of our precious church and all of you very valuable members, we have invited a spokesperson from the Martin County Sheriff's Department to come and speak to us about guarding our personal safety and that of larger organizations that may become a target.

There are things we can do to protect ourselves and our loved ones that we may not even have thought about. So please join us, hopefully on the 29th (subject to church calendar approval) for an informative evening with our usual array of appetizers and drinks and a little fellowship thrown in for good measure!

As this year comes to an end, I hope you include the Endowment in your generous plans for the church. Many of us are in the situation of meeting the requirements of our required minimum distribution (RMD) from our IRA accounts. Whatever your situation, please consider the Endowment as a recipient so we can continue to serve our church, make it stronger and give us a

Men's Fellowship

Our October meeting was delayed due to the water issues at the campus. We submitted dates for 2027 events, Pancake Supper and Car Show & BBQ. Next meeting will be Monday, December 7. The November meeting is cancelled due to a conflict with the All Souls' Day Service.

Our next activity will be delivering poinsettias to homebound parishioners for Christmas. If you know of a parishioner who does not make it to church regularly please give that name to me or Harry and we will arrange for a flower to be delivered.

Since we are in pledge season and the physical church needs our financial support I thought I would add my thoughts on the issue. In general, the Old Testament tithe is considered to be 10%, and that is off the top not just what is left over. The Lord gets the "first fruits" not leftovers. As I read the New Testament, the parable of the rich young man has always made me uncomfortable. It appears the New Testament tithe is 100%, Jesus wants our undivided loyalty.

Since few of us can achieve that goal I have always used the time, talent, and treasure theory of service to the Lord. Some of us have more treasure than we need. Others can use their time or talent is service of the Lord's mission to spread the gospel. Each individual should evaluate what they have to offer and then decide how to proceed. I have never done as much as I could have or should have, but I try to get better every day. Look for opportunities to serve at home, at church, or in the community. No effort is too small.

I am reminded of the saying "it is better to light a single candle than just curse the darkness." Remember what Jesus did with a few loaves and fishes, He can do the same with our efforts.

Women's Fellowship

The 2026-27 season for Women's Fellowship officially opened with a Welcome Back Brunch, on Saturday, October 17, in Houg Hall. Twenty-two women of All Saints' Episcopal Church attended. The dishes were delicious, as always, and the fellowship was warm and heartfelt.

The following women will be serving on our Outreach Committee to identify groups or organizations to receive donations: Michelle Pancallo, Marilyn Mawhinney, Jan Davids, and Marilyn Mazsa.

Anyone wishing to recommend a group or program for consideration should gather information about the group or organization and submit it to me to share with the Committee. You can use the Nomination Form on the next page.

Committee recommendations will be presented for approval at our meeting on Saturday, January 15, 2027. Funding for Outreach Programs comes from our proceeds at the annual:

Last year's Holly Fair provided $11,000 for local and Episcopal charities. Holly Fair's Chairwoman, Marilyn Mazsa, is seriously at work on collected items and booth assignments for the Fair. Karen Neff and Sandy Miller have been working to assemble over 100 baskets of great items for the Silent Auction. Look for the bulletin board in the Church's breezeway for items they still need.

Coming up is the Progressive Dinner, Friday, December 11. Sign-up sheets will be provided for those that want to host and/or attend this special holiday activity that brings together our All Saints' Family for great food, lively conversations and an enjoyable chance to get to know each other outside of the church setting.

Yes, our season of giving, celebrating and worshipping is in full swing at All Saints' Episcopal Church. Join in!

Weekly Food Collection

I want to thank everyone who donates food, your generosity is impressive.

We have a special event in November for the Harvest Thanksgiving Festival on Sunday the 22nd. On Saturday, November 21 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., we will be collecting food donations to decorate the Church building with. Your generosity in the past has allowed us to almost run out of room for the food... and that is a good thing to have.

Last year, we collected so much food the local pantry could not handle it and it had to be delivered to their warehouse... another good thing to have. The youth usually handle the delivery privilege.

As always hunger never takes a day off.

Fundraising

We held a successful Music Bingo on Friday, October 23. Almost sixty (60) people enjoyed an afternoon of music and fun and we raised over $500 for the church. Many thanks to all who helped or donated. Many hands make for light work.

The next activity will be the Christmas Card Tree which will take place during the Sundays in Advent. The idea is to write a card to your church family and put it on the tree in Houg Hall instead of sending many cards to many individuals, thereby saving postage and card costs. Then you can donate the money you saved to the church, it is a fundraiser after all!

Starting January 1, 2027, we will have another Weight Loss Competition. As usual we will have a men's and women's division. It costs $20 to join and the winners will receive a potentially valuable prize. You will weigh on your own scale at home and the honor system will be used. The winner will have lost the most weight based on a percentage of your starting weight. The contest lasts about 10 weeks because that is about as long as I can maintain a diet.

Daughters Of The King

All Saints' Day, celebrated on November 1, is a time to remember and give thanks for the saints who have gone before us in faith. It is also an opportunity to reflect on our own calling to live as faithful servants of Christ.

On November 1, 2026, the Order of the Daughters of the King (DOK) admitted Donna Baumgartner into the Order. Donna completed the national study of the Order with Marilyn Mawhinney and took the vow of Prayer, Service and Evangelism. It is an honor and a blessing to be part of such a dynamic prayer group. Please join us!

"Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight... and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us"
Hebrews 12:1.

These words invite us to continue our spiritual journey with courage, humility and dedication. We are strengthened by the witness of those whose faith had helped build and sustain the Church throughout the ages.

"Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in Heaven"
Matthew 5:16.

It is also the season of Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is a sacred time to pause and remember God's blessings and give thanks for the people and experiences that enrich our lives.

As members of the DOK we are mindful that gratitude is an essential part of our life of faith. Giving thanks helps us to share the grace of God with others.

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him bless his name."
Psalm 100:4.

As we head toward the Advent Season, may we honor those who came before us by faithfully trusting God's guidance and reflecting Christ's light in our homes, churches and communities.

CHRISTMAS PROGRESSIVE DINNER

All Saints Cemetery

Merciful Father, we commend to your keeping all who lie at rest in the Cemetery of All Saints: parishioners and neighbors, family and friends, those whose names we know and those remembered by you alone.

Watch over this holy ground, and keep it a place of peace, prayer, and hope. As we look out over these graves, remind us that they are not the end of the story, for your Son has gone before us through death and opened the way to eternal life.

O God of the living and the dead, on this day we remember before you all those whom we have loved and who have gone before us in faith. We give you thanks for their lives, for the ways they shaped ours, and for the love we shared, which death cannot undo.

Grant them rest and peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and bring us at last to that day when we shall be gathered together in your presence. Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord of all creation, we thank you for those who maintain and administer our cemetery: who mow and plant, mend and maintain, keep records and answer the questions of grieving families.

Bless their faithful work, which honors the departed and serves the living. Give them patience, joy in their labor, and the knowledge that what they do is done for you.

Risen Lord, as we stand together on this hillside and look upon the resting places of those we love, open our eyes to see beyond the stones. Let our remembering become thanksgiving, our sorrow become hope, and our gathering become a foretaste of the great communion of saints, where every tear is wiped away and all are made alive in you.

Respectfully submitted,

Pam Hurd

Peering Into the Past

Veterans' Day 2026

Below our green grass many veterans rest at peace. When Memorial Day and Veterans' Day come, the Boy Scouts place flags on the resting places of veterans. Not all veterans' graves are marked with a veteran's marker, and there are others who don't have a military grave marker, so only their family knows of their military service.

When you see all the flags, does it occur to you that there are veterans in our care that served other nations? I've written a book about some of them in service to the Unityed States. These are too numerous to count.

I've written of the two Polish men, the Duma brothers, who served in the Polish Army, they were prisoners of war and held by the Germans during World War II. Rudi Gabbatsch died in February 2013 at the age of 89 and his obituary tells us he was a veteran of the German Navy. He is also here.

Our former Senior Warden, Tony Langran, a former Cemetery Board Member, Martin Inwood, and our Cemetery Manager's father, Philip Kemp, and her grandfather, Robert E. Kemp, all served in the armed services of Great Britain. If you go through the Find a Grave pages for All Saints' Cemetery, you will find many interesting veterans' obituaries. We are grateful for all our veterans and for those who have served our allied nations in protecting our freedom.

People have asked why our quilters don't sell the quilts? First, the quilts are made as gifts for ladies and children at places like SafeSpace. It is one of our church's outreach projects.

However, if you are interested in the cost (material, labor, and finishing) to make a 65" x 65" throw quilt or to purchase it, here is a breakdown:

Materials:

Fabric for the top*:	6 yds @ $11/yd.	= $ 66.00
Backing fabric*:	4 yds @ $11/yd.	= $ 44.00
Binding fabric*:	5/8 yd @ $11/yd	= $ 6.88
Total Material Cost		= $ 116.88

Labor and Construction:

Labor is $15/hr. (Minimum wage)
Making the Top*: 50 hrs. x $15/hr. = $750.00
Assemble quilt sandwich: 3 hrs. x $15/hr. = $45
Quilting on domestic machine (Charge by sq. in.)
4,225 sq. ins. x $.015/sq. inch = $ 63.38
Thread for Quilting*: = $ 15.00
Total Construction Cost = $873.38

Finishing Cost: (Making & attaching the binding)
12 hrs. @ $15= $180.00

Total Cost Estimate for the materials, labor, Construction, and Finishing: $1,170.25

Based on this breakdown, are you willing to purchase one of our quilters?

Garden Happenings!

"Greta, Groggy, wake up! We have visitors. Ah …Hello, my name is Little One. Welcome to the garden. We are a friendly bunch but -- um; some of us like to nap." Little one pointed toward Groggy and Greta.

"Hello Little One, I like your sign. My name is Max and this is Clara. You have a wonderful spot here, but I'm glad to sit down after climbing up the hill. It was raining pretty hard, and then the sun came out so it was a steamy climb.

Did you say nap? That sounds like a fabulous idea, the rain and the heat can really get one down." Max proceeded to sit down but kept talking.

"We almost missed our turnoff. I had heard there was a boat yard across the street from the cemetery, and the Little White Church with the Big Heart that sits up on the hill. But I didn't know there was a huge boat storage building down by the river. I hope there is still beach somewhere. I love to sit on the beach and then take a nice cool swim."

"You can do that down the road a bit – but it is at your own risk. Hi, I'm Jackson. That river, the Indian River has some aggressive fish in it, along with hungry crabs and one needs to watch out for the fishermen … ah, well, fisher-people. That doesn't sound right. People that like to fish. That is what I meant to say. They tend to use anything or anyone for bait."

"Ewe, that sounds nasty." Clara spoke up shuddering.

Greta woke up, straightened her dress and looked around. Seeing Clara, her eyes zeroed onto the bag Clara carried. "I'm Greta. Who are you and where did you get that fabulous handbag? I have to say I want one—even if I shouldn't. Oh, there are two of you."

"Greta, meet Clara and Max; and please be nice. They are traveling and would like to stay here for a bit. I think there is room for all of us in the church gardens. Oh, there are the church bells. I didn't hear them earlier, I wonder why. And here comes the rain, again. Clara and Max, you can take cover over here." Little One was being a very good host.

A bit later, after the storm passed and the sun came out, the friends gathered in their spot along the sidewalk. Little One asked: "Greta did you listen to the bells, could you hear them from where you were?"

I'm not sure what the song is we have heard it often; but this time it sounded different. Almost magical, with the rain beating on the metal roof and overhead leaves, the bells were somehow softer. I went to sleep and it was so calming."

Max spoke up: "I believe we all may have done the same thing; taken a nap! As long as there is not thunder, a rainstorm is the perfect time to take a nap."

Jackson took the opportunity to make a statement and yet ask a question: "I am glad we heard the sermon at the 8:00 a.m. service. We were all awake after that early morning storm had ended and the western sky had a rainbow. You are right, I think we all slept through the 10:00 a.m. service.

Max where do you go to church? Have you had the opportunity to hear the Gospel read and preached?" Max sat on the brick and was quiet for a moment. "We have been traveling around. No, we do not go to just one church. We did, however, meet Flora, a big red bee. She told us about all of you and about Father Tony and the congregation. So, we have been headed your way for a while. I'm really looking forward to this opportunity."

"That sounds like our Flora." Groggy said, "Always talking. The rain sometimes keeps her from flying back here from wherever she is. I hope she comes around here soon.

"Father Tony had a real good sermon today. We often listen to just the 10:00 a.m. service but today it was the 8:00 a.m. sermon we heard. He spoke about the interactions of Jesus and the Pharisees. When Jesus was asked which of the commandments was the most important. If I remember correctly the event is recorded in Matthew 22, verses 36 to 46. If you do not know that, let me repeat it."

I'm familiar with the passage but go on." Max responded but Clara just nodded her head and moved closer. "Recall then, Jesus was asked: "Which is the greatest commandment? His response is to "love the Lord your God with all you heart and with all you soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment"

But He did not stop there he continued "And the second is like unto it "Love you neighbor as yourself." So not only are we to love our Lord God, but also our neighbor. Our commitment to God as our Lord is reflected as a command to love each other. Wouldn't this be a better world if we could all do that?" All heads were nodding, Father Tony said: "Love your Lord God and support what is important to Him; in other words, support His church." (Paraphrased)

Well, out here in the garden we do not have money. But we do have love and compassion. We can love each other despite our differences.

God loves all, we are called to love all as well. We watch the human children come and go and love them; we watch over the critters large and small; and we love our Lord God by learning about Him and communicating with Him and being in relationship with Him. "We are called to use our gifts to share with those in need. Shape our life to live generously to share with others. Everything we do and say rest on this."

Sunday School

The First Letter to the Corinthians tells us we're "precious." John says we're "chosen." The Psalms say we're "unique and strong." The Letter to the Ephesians describes us as "special." Daniel says we're "lovely." We are building a bulletin board in the classroom with these amazing words! It's always nice to be reminded of our positive qualities!

Jack, Magnolia, Andrew, Zariah, Nicholas, Eliott and Lillian worked with Natalie and Jerry Walters as they prepared individual Ziploc bags of creamer and sugar for the people living in Tent City. These bags will be combined with packages of instant coffee and are very much appreciated.

On November 14, the boys and girls will be manning the annual Pizza Tent at the Women's Fellowship's Holly Fair. All proceeds earned will be donated to the Women's Fellowship for the many outreach programs they support. So be sure to enjoy a slice of pizza at the Holly Fair!

Harvest Thanksgiving Sunday will provide another opportunity for them to be involved with another community outreach, the House of Hope. The children will box up all of the donated food brought into the church building and take it to the House of Hope. Last year, All Saints' Church donated 925 pounds of food! Let's see if we can break that record this year!

I want to give a big thank you to Paul Neff, Jerry and Natalie Walters who filled in for me at Sunday school while I was visiting Mom in Texas. Great job!
