First Reading: Wisdom 3. 1-9

1 But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment will ever touch them.
2 In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster 3 and their going from us to be their destruction, but they are at peace.
4 For though in the sight of others they were punished,
their hope is full of immortality.
5 Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
6 like gold in the furnace he tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.
7 In the time of their visitation they will shine forth
and will run like sparks through the stubble.
8 They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord will reign over them forever.
9 Those who trust in him will understand truth,
and the faithful will abide with him in love,
because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones,
and he watches over his elect.

Psalm 116. 1-8

1 I love the Lord
 who has heard the voice of my supplication,

2 who has list-[1]ened to me
* whenever I called.

3 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me;
 I came to grief and sorrow.

4 Then I called upon the name of the Lord:
 "O Lord, I pray you, save my life."

5 Gracious is the Lord and righteous;
 our God is full of compassion.

6 The Lord watches over the innocent;
 I was brought very low, and the Lord helped me.

7 Turn again to your rest, O my soul,
 for the Lord has treated you well.

8 For you, O Lord, have rescued my life from death,
 my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

Second (Epistle) Reading: 1 Peter 1. 3-9

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead 4 and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, 5 who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials,

7 so that the genuineness of your faith being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.
8 Although you have not seen him, you love him, and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, 9 for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away, for I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day.”.
