Hello, Dear Church!

I hope everyone has had a good week. I enjoyed our monthly fellowship meal very much last night, and I was glad to see so many of you there. Let's remember to give a big thanks to the team that makes that possible whenever you see them. They have done an excellent job this year! The food has been delicious; the decorations have been amazing. We appreciate all of you so much.

We have decided to combine our weekly newsletter with the bulletin announcement that goes out each week. From now on, you will receive one communication from us on Thursdays with all of the church happenings in one place.

I am looking forward to worship on Sunday as we focus on that famous line, "Be still and know that I am God." We will discuss taking the time to slow down, quiet ourselves, and spend quality, intimate time with our Creator. Remember our OCC packing day right after the service. It isn't too late to contribute a pair of shoes if you haven't already.

Last but not least, let's keep Maxine and her family in our prayers as they are traveling in Mexico on a mission trip.

Enjoy the rest of your week as winter continues to approach!

With love,
Pastor Zach
