Dear North Ridge Family,
We wanted to let you know that we have decided to gather for a small family reunion to celebrate Dad's life. Mom and Dad deeply loved this church and they were loved well in return. With the three of us spread out so far, each with families and responsibilities, it was difficult to find a time to honor Dad following his death. Above all, we want to say thank you for all you have done to honor and care for Mom and Dad over the years. In Him, Greg Mayes, Lisa Fenley, Shawn Mayes & Families

(Copies of the entire letter is on the table in the foyer and on the bulletin board.)

Sink Or Swim
By Michael Orr

When waters rage and hopes are dim,
I must decide to sink or swim,
For floating by cannot prevail,
As waves grow strong and strength may fail.

In sinking one gives up the fight,
But swimming takes up all my might,
And when I brave the great unknown,
I lose the battle on my own.

So what must I, this swimmer do,
When darker thoughts come into view?
How can I swim in open sea,
When no one else is there but me?

I know that I am not enough,
For waves are strong and times are tough,
And in this state I must confess,
The sea is more and I am less.

I start to sink, for arms grow weak,
As I fall short of all I seek,
Yet hope will surface from my grave,
For borrowed strength and hands to save.

But then from nowhere someone finds me,
Holds me up and gently binds me,
Tethered by the strength of will,
That calms the seas with 'Peace, be Still.'

And I am brought to surface clear,
My hope restored, my help is near,
For though the path is deep and grim,
Through Christ, I will not sink but swim.
