CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, our dwelling place for all generations,
whose compassion never slumbers.
C Amen.

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

P Holy God,
C we confess that we have trusted in our preparation
instead of your invitation.
We prioritize our piety over care for your beloved.
We trust the voice of our shame and fear, which keeps us from entering fully into relationship with you and others.
We are not awake to the coming of your reign.
Rouse us and rescue us,
that we may enter into your joy.
Am

P Inherit the riches of God's grace.
☩ Jesus, the good shepherd, feeds you with his mercy.
You are forgiven.
Blessed are you.
C Amen.

GREETING

P The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
All: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Let us pray: Righteous God, our merciful master, you own the earth and all its peoples, and you give us all that we have. Inspire us to serve you with justice and wisdom, and prepare us for the joy of the day of your coming, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
C Amen. The assembly is seated.

CHILDREN'S MESSAGE Pastor Stephen Hilding

(All kids age 3 up to 5th grade are welcome at Sunday School whether they are registered or not! If they are new and are anxious about going, parents are welcome to come and join!)

FIRST READING ZEPHANIAH 1:7, 12-18

Zephaniah (like the prophet Amos in last week's first reading) presents the day of the LORD as one of judgment and wrath. Descriptions of the last day in the New Testament include details taken from Old Testament accounts of the day of the LORD.

7 Be silent before the Lord GOD, for the day of the LORD is at hand!
The LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
he has consecrated his guests.

12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who settle like dregs in wine, those who say in their hearts,
"The LORD will not do good,
nor will he do harm."
13 Their wealth shall be plundered and their houses laid waste.
Though they build houses,
they shall not inhabit them;
though they plant vineyards,
they shall not drink wine from them.

14 The great day of the LORD is near,
near and hastening fast;
the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter;
the warrior cries aloud there.
15 That day will be a day of wrath,
a day of distress and anguish,
a day of ruin and devastation,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements.
17 I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind;

because they have sinned against the LORD,
their blood shall be poured out like dust
and their flesh like dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath;
in the fire of his passion
the whole earth shall be consumed, for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

A The Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING 1 THESSALONIANS 5:1-11

Though we do not know and cannot calculate the day of Christ's return, we live faithfully in the here and now as we anticipate the day when we will be given eternal salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. 2 For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. 3 When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! 4 But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; 5 for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. 6 So, then, let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober, 7 for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. 8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober and put on the breastplate of faith and love and for a helmet the hope of salvation. 9 For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.
11 Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

A The Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Please stand to welcome the Gospel.

HOLY GOSPEL OF MATTHEW… MATTHEW 25:14-30

Jesus tells a parable about his second coming, indicating that it is not sufficient merely to maintain things as they are. Those who await his return should make good use of the gifts that God has provided them.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] 14 "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; 15 to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. At once 16 the one who had received the five talents went off and traded with them and made five more talents.
17 In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. 18 But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. 19 After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. 20 Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' 21 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things; I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' 22 And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying,
'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' 23 His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things; I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' 24 Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not scatter, 25 so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' 26 But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow and gather where I did not scatter? 27 Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. 28 So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. 29 For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance, but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. 30 As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' "

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

A United with the great cloud of witnesses, we offer our prayers for the church, the world, and all of creation.

A brief silence.

A You build up the church as a community of faithful witnesses throughout the generations. Enliven the worship, outreach, and service work of our congregations and ministries with the hope of your good news. God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A As the nights grow longer in the northern hemisphere, make us mindful of the earth's need for rest. Provide for fallow fields and hibernating animals; show us how to curb human impact on vulnerable lands and species. God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Rescue all nations and peoples from violence, displacement, or famine. Disrupt complacency among national and local leaders. Recommit our communities to transforming the systems that divide and oppress into those that empower and unite. God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A In your embrace, we find refuge from all trials and troubles. Care for families who are separated or estranged, accompany all undergoing medical procedures or mental health treatment, and reassure any who are ill or despairing especially those we name at this time… God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Bless all who serve in congregational leadership: council members, finance committees, volunteer coordinators, and property teams. Encourage healthy stewardship of time, talents, and resources for the mission of the gospel. God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A The faithful of every age trust in the hope of your saving grace. In thanksgiving for the ways our ancestors have journeyed before us especially Mae Thompson, we remember all who have entered eternal life in you. God, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

A Into your steadfast love, faithful God, we entrust all for whom we pray, in the name of Jesus, your beloved.
C Amen.

PEACE

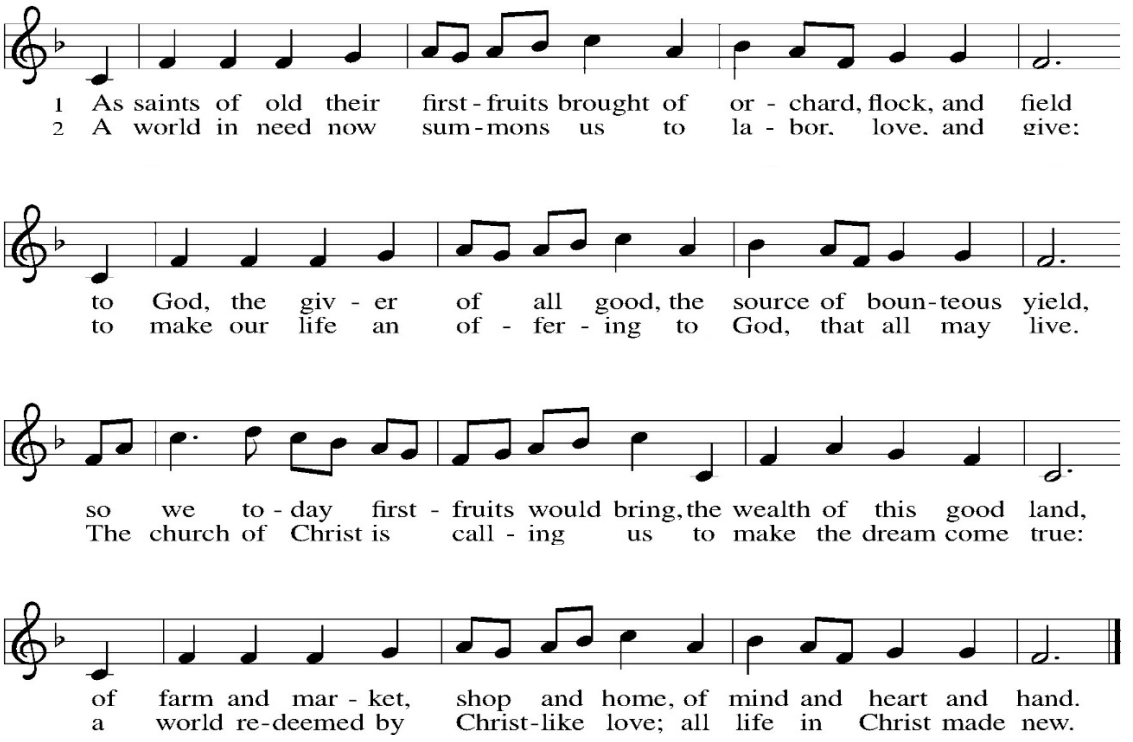

A The peace of Christ be with you always.
C And also with you. *Please share Christ's peace with those around you.

OFFERTORY

PRESENTATION OF TITHES AND OFFERING

(The offering is a part of our service when God's people respond to His goodness with gifts to support God's work in the world. Malachi 3:10 promises us that our 10% tithe of our wealth will not go unrewarded, and we are encouraged to give offerings above the tithe. An offering is not expected of our guests, but if you consider First Lutheran to be your church home, know that all your gifts support ministries both locally and globally.)

CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The Words of Institution

THE LORDS PRAYER

C Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and power, and the glory, forever and ever.
Amen.

Wednesday Meals

To The Committees:

Thank you for agreeing to help with the new ministry of providing Wednesday night meals for church school, confirmation and the congregation! Church committees have been assigned a week to take a turn preparing and serving the weekly meal. Once a month, on the first Wednesday will be a potluck for the congregation to participate in, if it is your committee's week, that's what you will be serving.

The Food Committee is working hard to make this as easy for your group as possible. There will be hot dishes available in the freezer for you to take out and prepare, alongwith a supply of cookies that were made for dessert. There will also be some groceries in the pantry to use. If you wish, you are welcome to plan and mal<e your own meal. There will be a list on the freezer of what is available and a list of grocery items. If you need to purchase items for your meal, or if you wish to order it, you will need to get the credit card from Beckie in the office.

You will need to be ready to serve your meal by 5:15 pm-supper starts at 5:30, and worship is at 6:00 pm. You may have some students assigned to help in the kitchen from time to time as part of their service hours.

There will be paper plates and plastic ware on hand to use. Most Wednesdays, your groups should consist of 3-5 people. If you use the dishwasher, you must empty it and clean it when finished, and take out the trash.

Confirmation Sermon Notes Sunday, November 15

Matthew 25:14-30 Sermon Notes

1. If someone handed you $10,000 and said, "Use this well," what would you do with it? Why?

2. What is something God has given you that you're pretty good at (sports, music, making friends, helping people, humor, leadership, art, etc.)?

3. What fears sometimes keep people from trying, helping, speaking up, or using their gifts?

4. In one sentence: What do you think Jesus wants us to do with the gifts, abilities, opportunities, and faith He gives us?

A Word from Gratitude and Invitation

Every week at First Lutheran, countless acts of service help make our ministry possible. From welcoming worshippers at the door to teaching our children, preparing meals, serving at funerals, sharing music, quilting, leading Bible studies, and supporting worship through technology, volunteers are the heart of our congregation.

We extend our sincere thanks to all who generously share their time, talents, and faith through these ministries. Your commitment enriches our church family and helps us carry out God's work in meaningful ways.

As you reflect on your own volunteer journey, consider what first inspired you to say "yes" to serving. Perhaps it was a desire to give back, a personal invitation from another member, a passion for a particular ministry, or simply a willingness to help where needed.

Today, First Lutheran offers opportunities for service in many areas, including worship leadership, hospitality, Sunday School, Wednesday School, Confirmation, Church Council, committees, WELCA, Men in Mission, Altar Guild, funeral service teams, music ministries, quilting groups, Bible studies, livestream ministry, fellowship events, and much more.

We encourage each member to prayerfully consider how God may be calling them to share their gifts. A personal invitation can make all the difference. If a ministry has blessed you, consider inviting a friend or fellow member to join you in service.

Together, we continue to live out First Lutheran's mission:

"To Share God's Love by Engaging, Inspiring, and Renewing."

Thank you for all you do to make First Lutheran a welcoming, caring, and vibrant community of faith. Your service matters, your gifts are appreciated, and your ministry makes a difference.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace."
