Family Take-home Devotions

November 15, 2026, Micah

Micah [1:3-5]; 5:2-5a; 6:6-8

Use this resource at home to guide your household's daily devotions.

Pray: Light a candle and open your devotion time with a prayer.

God of promise, as the prophet Micah speaks of a coming time of peace, let us also be prophets, not only speaking your words of love and reconciliation to a world in pain, but putting into action our commitment to working for the peace you desire for all of creation. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Read: Read the key verse from Sunday's reading.

He has told you, O mortal, what is good;
and what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? (Micah 6:8)

Reflect: Reflect on the scripture summary.

God's people have sinned, and God is grieved. They wonder what horrific restitution they will have to endure to appease God. God expects no offerings or sacrifices, only humility and justice.

Connect: Connect in conversation with others in your household.

- What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?
- How are the actions of your community/culture punished or rewarded? How can you influence your community's behaviors so that they more closely match God's ways?
- How do you act with justice, kindness, and humility? What can you do this week to make improvements in those areas of your life?
- For the littles: What do you do that shows kindness to others? God asks us to be just (fair), kind, and humble (not selfish).

Bless: Close your devotion with a blessing.

May God fill you with justice, kindness, and humility. Amen.

Do: By acting on what we learn, we make God's word come alive. Do the following activity this week.

Perform an act of justice, kindness, or humility for a stranger at least once each day this week. Make a note of how your behavior shapes your attitude.
