Sunday, November 15, 2026 Watching over one another in love

From Sunday's sermon: As For Me and My House, "Do Justice, Love Kindness," Micah 1:3-5; 5:2-5a; 6:6-8 · Personal faith and social holiness, held together

Acts of Mercy. Micah's middle verb is "embrace faithful love." Most mercy looks ordinary: a meal, a ride, a call. Start with the people already in your path.

:00 GETTING TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER

Share your name, then pick one of these to answer.

- What is something you are proud of that no one would guess?
- What is a movie you would gladly watch again?

:05 WE BEGIN

Before we pray, a little quiet to arrive.

. . . a few moments of silence . . .

> Holy God, you are gentle with what is broken. Be gentle with us this hour, and make us gentle with one another. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

:08 OUR COVENANT

We read these four out loud and say yes to them together.

Show up. Keep coming. God grows faith in us slowly, together.

Be honest. Share what's real. God works with the truth.

Keep it private. What's shared stays with us and with God.

Give everyone space. Listen to understand. Jesus listened before he spoke.

Turn over for the three questions

:10 SOUL TENDING

How is your faith journey going?

- Where is your faith showing up in how you treat others?
- Where did you show mercy this week, and where did you see Christ in it?

:25 GOD SIGHTINGS

Where do you see God at work in your life?

- Where have you seen faith make a difference in our community?
- Which of Micah's three verbs comes easiest to you, and which is hardest?

:40 GROWING IN GRACE

What challenge are you giving to God?

- Who needs you to put your faith into action this week?
- What one act of mercy will you do before we meet again?

:50 WE CLOSE

If there is time, share one of these out loud. If not, reflect on them in silence.

- What did you hear from someone that you want to sit with this week?
- Who here will you check in with before we meet again?

. . . a few moments of silence . . .

> Gracious God, you receive grief and gladness alike. Take ours, and send us out held. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
