St. Mary Magdalene Anglican Church

Diocese of New Westminster

Located on the unceded land of the Musqueam, Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh nations

Welcome!

If you are new here or visiting, please stay after worship for refreshments and conversation.

This booklet will guide you through the service. As you are comfortable, please join in singing the songs as well as in saying together the words printed in bold type.

If you would like to request prayers, please write the names of those to be remembered in the book on the small table in the prayer corner.

Communion is in both kinds (bread and wine). All are welcome at the table, and no one is required to take communion. Participants are welcome to consume only bread. Please do not dip the bread in the wine.

At St. Mary Magdalene's, we strive to live out our Holy Baptism promises to seek and serve Christ in all persons, to strive for justice and peace among all people, respecting the dignity of every human being, and safeguarding the integrity of God's creation.

Thank you for joining us today.

The Gathering of the Community

Most Anglican services begin with a procession led by a cross. That doesn't work well with the space at St. Mary Mags. Instead, we are experimenting with bringing the bread and wine for Holy Communion to signal the beginning of worship.

We gather in worship because we can't love in isolation. The Christian tradition is profoundly relational. We also gather to learn from and support each other.

Song Jesus, Remember Me

Text: Luke 23.42.
Music: Jacques Berthier

Presider: Blessed be the One who creates all things.
All: The Holy One's love is new every morning.
Presider: As we gather on the unceded and ancestral lands of the Coast Salish Nations, let us pray that Christ's grace and peace will be with us.
All: May we be ministers of the reconciling love of our Creator.

Anglican worship is embodied: we vary our posture by standing and sitting, and some people use gestures such as crossing themselves or bowing their heads at the name of Jesus.

Prayer of the Day

Presider: Destitute king,

All: one with the hungry, the naked, and the scorned: may our faith be proved not in dogma and piety but in serving you in the last and the least; through Jesus Christ, the stranger's Lord. Amen.

The Prayer of the Day, more commonly called the Collect, reflects a theme drawn from the readings.

Prayers for an Inclusive Church (2009)

Proclamation of the Word

First Reading

Reader: A reading from the Book of Ezekiel (Ezekiel 34:11-16, 20-24)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Silence is kept.

Sunday readings are from the Revised Common Lectionary, a three-year cycle of readings that ensure that major themes and events are revisited each year.

Psalm 100 #349 All People That on Earth Do Dwell

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell;
come ye before him and rejoice.

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed; without our aid he did us make;
we are his fold, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

3. O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

4. For why, the Lord our God is good;
his mercy is forever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Text: Ps. 100 para. William Kethe
Music: Melody Geneva

Second Reading

Reader: A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Ephesians (Ephesians 1:15-23)

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.
All: Thanks be to God.
Silence is kept.

Song #457 Alleluia! Glory to God
Refrain: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

1. Glory to God who does wondrous things;
let all the people God's praises now sing;
all of creation in splendour shall ring:
alleluia! Refrain

2. See how salvation for all has been won;
up from the grave our new life has begun;
life now perfected in Jesus, the Son:
alleluia! Refrain

3. Now in our presence the Lord will appear, shine in the faces of all of us here;
fill us with joy and cast out all our fear:
alleluia! Refrain

4. Call us, good Shepherd; we listen for you, wanting to see you in all that we do;
we would the gate of salvation pass through:
alleluia! Refrain

5. Lord, we are open to all that you say, ready to listen and follow your way;
you are the potter and we are the clay:
alleluia! Refrain

6. If we have love, then we dwell in the Lord;
God will protect us from fire and sword,
fill us with love and the peace of his word:
alleluia! Refrain

Text: Marty Haugen
Music: Melody Airs sur les hymnes sacrez, odes et noels, Paris

"Those who sing pray twice." Attributed to St. Augustine, the idea is that singing includes words (intellect and meaning) and music (emotion and spirit). Together they unite heart and mind in praise and contemplation.

Gospel Reading

Reader: May God be with you.
All: And also with you.
Reader: The Holy Gospel of Jesus according to Matthew (Matthew 25:31-46)
All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.
All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Some people make a small cross on their forehead, lips and heart, a silent prayer: "May the Gospel be in my mind, on my lips, and in my heart."

We are invited to stand and turn to face the Gospel because Jesus' words and life hold special meaning for us.

Reflection The Rev. Tasha Carrothers

Following a period of silence, all are invited to share a brief thought or story evoked by the readings or the reflection. A copy of the reflection is available at the back of the church.

Song #520 The King of Love My Shepherd Is

1. The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his
and he is mine forever.

2. Where streams of living water flow, my ransomed soul he leadeth,
and where the verdant pastures grow,
with food celestial feedeth.

3. Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
and on his shoulder gently laid,
and home rejoicing brought me.

4. In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.

5. Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!

6. And so all the length of days thy goodness faileth never;
good shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever!

Text: Ps. 23 Music: John Bacchus Dykes

Affirmation of Faith

Presider: Let us declare our trust as we say,

All: You, O God, are Creator of all,
by whom every being in heaven and earth is fashioned, named, and sustained.
You call us each by name.

You, O God, are Living Word, who came and pitched your tent with us,
lived and died and rose again.
You speak to us now through faith.

You, O God, are Holy Spirit, who comforts, strengthens, and inspires, sending us forth to share your love.
You are the breath of grace.

You, O God, are Trinity:
Creator, Word, Spirit;
artist, healer, friend.

You are holy mystery.
We worship you. Amen.

Most Anglican congregations recite the Nicene Creed or the Apostle's Creed as the way to hand on the faith of the church. At St. Mary Mags we usually recite an authorized affirmation of faith that uses contemporary language.

Prayers of the Community

Please stand or sit as you prefer for prayer.

In the prayers of the community, the people join their prayers to bring to God the needs of the Church, the world, and all who are in need. There is a book on the front hall table where you can add names of people for whom you would like prayer.

Confession and Absolution

Presider: Dear friends in Christ,
God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;
God welcomes sinners
and invites them to this table.
Let us confess our sins,
confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Christians believe that we all fail in love in some way. Confession not about grovelling—it is about recognizing that we are caught in distorted relationships that separate us from God, from others, and from creation. We confess together because sin and forgiveness are not private matters only but realities that affect the whole community.

Presider: Most merciful God,
All: we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People: Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The peace of God be with you all.
All: And also with you.
We share the peace of God with one another with a gesture of greeting.

"The Peace is an encounter, a reconciliation, and an anticipation." We are reminded that we encounter Christ is others. We affirm that we are reconciled with each other before receiving communion. We act out the peace and unity of God's kingdom. (BAS p 177)

The Celebration of the Eucharist

Financial offerings can be placed in the plate or made through tap. Both are near the main entrance to the church.

Song Table Prayer

Text & Music: Mike Balhoff, Gary Daigle, Darryl Ducote

Prayer over the Gifts

Presider: Merciful God,

All: as grains of wheat scattered upon the hills were gathered together to become one bread, so let your church be gathered together from the ends of the earth into your kingdom, for yours is the glory through Jesus Christ, now and for ever. Amen.

Evangelical Lutheran Worship (2006) alt.

Anglicans value beauty, so we use images, candles, flowers and hangings to make the setting special. We also value the created world, so the elements are real: real candles, real flowers, real bread and wine.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider: May God be with you.

*All: And also with you

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to God.

Presider: Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

All: We give our thanks and praise.

The opening dialogue confirms that the people wish to continue with communion. The priest cannot go ahead without the people's involvement.

Presider: Holy God, Lover of creation, we give you thanks and praise for in the ocean of your steadfast love you bear us and place the song of your Spirit in our hearts.

Eucharist is Greek for thanksgiving. Every Great Thanksgiving prayer includes four basic elements.

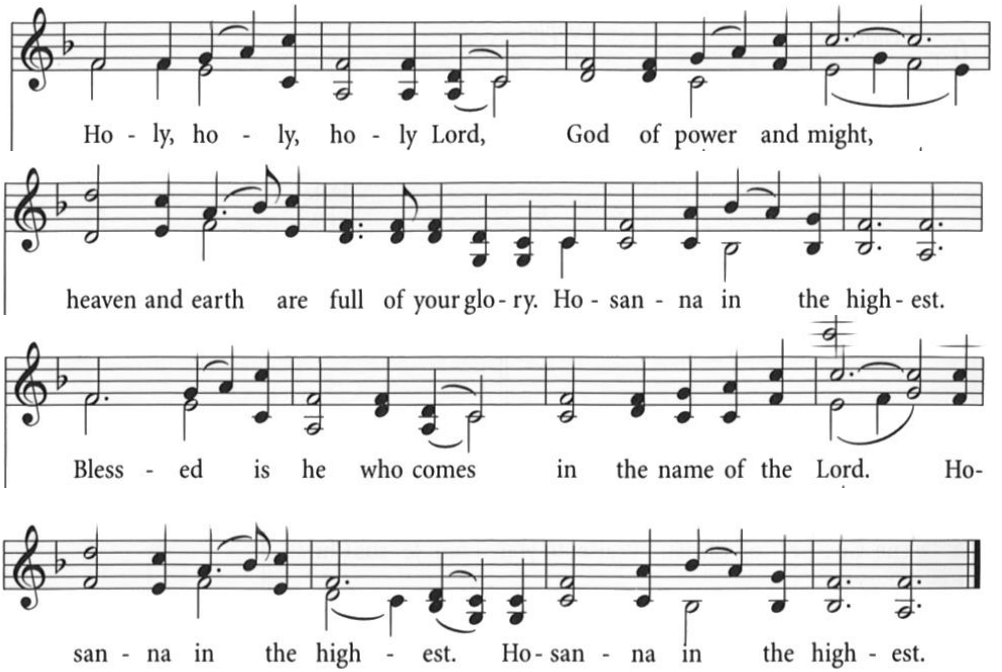

1. We give God thanks and praise

When we turn from your love and defile the earth,
you do not abandon us.

2. We remember that God has been with us since the beginning, despite our alienating behaviour, (con't)

Your Spirit speaks through Huldah and Micah, through prophets, sages, and saints in every age,
to confront our sin and reveal the vision of your new creation.

Joining in the song of the universe
we proclaim your glory singing:

Presider: Gracious God, in the fullness of time you sent Jesus the Christ to share our fragile humanity.
Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection
you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit to reverence for you.

(con't) and that God continues to heal, free, and renew all of Creation (including us!)

Rejected by a world that could not bear the Gospel of life, Jesus knew death was near.
His head anointed for burial
by an unknown woman,
Jesus gathered together those who loved him.
He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends, saying,
"Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

3. We tell the story of Jesus' last meal

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and said
"Drink this all of you,
this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for all people.
Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

The "new covenant" deepens God's existing relationship with God's people.

And now we gather at this table in response to his commandment, to share the bread and cup of Christ's undying love,
and to proclaim our faith.

All: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Presider: Breathe your Holy Spirit,
the wisdom of the universe,
upon these gifts that we bring to you:
this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

4. We ask God to send the Holy Spirit to bless and make holy both us and the bread and wine.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours,
Creator of all, and we bless your holy name for ever.

All: Amen.

As with the opening dialogue, the people's Amen is essential.

The Lord's Prayer

Breaking of the Bread

Presider: We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All: We, being many, are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

Communion

Presider: The gifts of God for the people of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

Please remain at your places. The consecrated bread and wine will be brought around to all who wish. Everyone is welcome at the table.

Sending Out of the Disciples

Prayer after Communion

Presider: O God, our life, our strength, our food,
All: we give you thanks for sustaining us with the body and blood of your Son.
By your Holy Spirit, enliven us to be his body in the world, so that more and more we will give you praise and serve your earth and its many peoples, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord. Amen.

Evangelical Lutheran Worship (2006) alt.

Doxology

Presider: Glory to God,
All: whose power, working in us,
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Doxology: Greek for glory/praise + word/saying. Often found at the end of prayers or worship, doxologies are expressions of gratitude for all that God gives us. This doxology is from Ephesians 3:20-21.

Blessing

The Blessing confirms something that is already true: that God loves and supports us.

Song #600 You Call Us Out to Praise You

1. You call us out to praise you, one God for all the earth, to gather in communion and treasure your human worth;
we are your living story, to hear and to be heard;
we praise your name, who write us, the Writer and the Word.

2. For varied hues and textures, new patterns, still you search, to weave your seamless garment, the fabric of your church;
our tattered faith you cherish, reclaim from wear and moth;
we praise your name, who twine us, the Weaver and the Cloth.

3. The church that speaks forgiveness confesses its own need, the church that feels its hunger finds grace to care and feed;
our famished world is crying, its future filled with dread;
we praise your name, who fill us, the Baker and the Bread.

4. The church that offers healing discerns its wounds and loss;
the church that faces dying shares life beyond the cross;
to people torn and broken, your mercy is revealed;
we praise your name, who love us, the Healer and the Healed.

5. Our feeble voices struggle to sing your justice clear;
the world is sunk in silence, each discord echoes fear;
one voice alone is ragged, together we are strong;
we praise your name, who breathe us, the Singer and the Song.

Text: Anna Briggs, alt. Music: Patrick Wedd

Dismissal

Deacon: Go in peace to love and serve God's world.
All: Thanks be to God.

Christian worship leads naturally into Christian service. We take the love and acceptance we have found here and offer the same to the people we encounter in our everyday lives.

We are told to "Go!" but please stick around for coffee or tea; you've got the whole rest of the week ahead of you.
