PRAYERS & PRAISES: 11.22.26

Please continue to pray for Brigette Stump as she continues to heal from her knee surgery. Pray for complete healing healing of her leg

Please lift up Evie Tobias, as she is experiencing severe back pain and that her physician can develop a diagnosis and treatment plan.

Please lift up in prayer the families of Bob & Karen Stats, as their grandson, Nathan Stats, has been missing for a couple weeks.

CONTINUED PRAYERS FOR HEALING

Brittany August, Jennifer Wegmiller, Jack Tobias, Euda Rader (sister to Von Smeltzer), Myron (son- in-law to Jack Tobias), Kim Howenstine, Brigette Stump, Tracy Mitchell, Hunter Velthouse, & Brent Hochstetler

We have a tendency to compartmentalize our _____.

Everything is _____. - Colossians 3:17

How do our words give _____ to God... How do we use them as an expression of _____ for what He's done for us through Jesus? - Luke 6:45

What's in your _____ eventually overflows out of your _____.

Pray with your _____. because they connect you to God. - Colossians 4:2

The words you speak to people reflect the words you speak to _____ about them.

Devoted prayer means _____ prayer.

We need to practice _____ prayer.

We need to practice _____ prayer. - Colossians 4:3-4

An open door is a natural opportunity for a spiritual _____.

Talking to God about people _____ the way you talk to them.

Engage with your words, because they build _____ to outsiders.
- Colossians 4:5-6

When you're talking to people who aren't part of the church, your tone should be _____ and _____. - Proverbs 25:11

When people are in transition, they're more open to a spiritual conversation.

When someone is in _____, it's not a time for a lot of advice or a lot of words. .. It's a time to be vulnerable, to be supportive, to let them know you care.

_____ with your words, because they strengthen others.
- Colossians 4:7-9

See and say what others _____.

Affirm their _____ in God's kingdom.

Speak to their _____, not just their _____.

Be _____ rather than generic.

Honor with your words, because they deepen your _____.

We want to use our words to connect people to _____.
