Week 6 Small Group Questions

Colossians 2:1-3

Ice Breaker: What is the most memorable journey you've ever been on? It can be a vacation, but how was it memorable?

- Pick your spouse or your best friend or the person you are closest to; say they are on a trip away from you for three months and you have five minutes with them on the phone for the entire time, or you could only send them one text message – what is the most important thing that you would want them to know?
- What would your prayers for them look like during that trip?
- Who is the person (other than your spouse) that you know that your hearts are connected and what is the evidence of that connection?
- Paul references "the riches of complete understanding." That is a heavy statement. What does this look like in our relationships?
- What is at least one thing in your life that you can say "no man has given me this or taught me this, this is something that is a treasure that only God can give?"
