As we look around us, we see the realities Jesus spoke about in Matthew 24:6–13. Wars, troubles, and tribulations remind us that we live in challenging times.

Yet, we have a reason to rejoice: Jesus Christ has come!

His birth is God's greatest expression of love, bringing salvation, light, and hope to a troubled world. Though we face trials and battles, Christ gives us strength to endure and faith to keep going.

The world may be filled with uncertainty, but our hope remains in Jesus.
This Christmas, let us celebrate the love, joy, and hope His coming has brought to humanity!
