Joshua 24

1. Joshua opens with a history because remembering what God has done is how Israel knows who God is. What is the story of God's faithfulness in your own life that you could tell. Who in this room has never heard it from you?
2. What are things that might take precedence over God in your life? Examine what you worry about or spend your best energy on. Are there places you are taking things into your own hands, rather than trusting Him?
3. Exodus 19:6 calls us a kingdom of priests. What is one concrete thing you do that makes this body work? Is there someting that is holding you back from doing more? Is there something not that you can do, but that you can be (kind, patient, forgiving, etc.), that can bring you further into His kingdom?
4. Philippians 2 points us to Christ's servant mindset. Think about where you have influence: at home, at work, in an argument online. Do you use it to serve or to win? And what would it look like to follow Christ, even when you're sure you're right?
5. Where are you trying to win a victory over sin by your own ‘sword and bow’, and what would it mean to let the Lord go ahead of you?
